Board Is Knocked On Safety Plans For Civic Center

A variety of problems of Civic Center safety, ranging from motor traffic to railings for protection of the long interior "wells", perplexed county supervisors yesterday.

"By 1980, after 10 or 15 people have been killed," forecast Mrs. Raymond J. Smith of 122 Hawthorn Way, Santa Venetia, "the county will have arrived at a lovely, complicated, expensive solution" to the problem of Civic Center access.

She said "the county is running true to its usual behind-the-times form" is failing to forsee that Santa Venetia residents would find themselves sitting in cars "half-way down Puerto Suello Hill, waiting to turn off the highway"—and waiting to be involved in chain-reaction rear-end accidents.

Simple made-to-order solution, said Mrs. Smith, would be to "knock down that fence closing off San Pablo Avenue and let us poor country folk use it as one-way exit from Highway 101."

"Inform the lady we don't have jurisdiction," acting Chairman William D. Fusselman first told public works director Donaid R. Frost. But after discussion, it was decided Fusselman and Frost would talk the idea over with state highway officials.

Of several Marin County Safety Commission recommendations, the one that electrified supervisors was a proposal that the Civic Center light wells, a major feature of the administration building and already guarded by a three-foot solid structure, also be surmounted by a guard rail.

"If we decide there shouldn't be one and a child falls down the well we'll be held responsible," said Supervisor Peter Behr gloomily. Fusselman said there'd have to be such railings on each of three floors. Supervisor William A. Gnoss said the Civic Center might be taken as a substitute for the Golden Gate Bridge by some adult.

Of two other safety commission suggestions, Frost said it was not feasible to install a signal warning device in the loading zone by the front door but sidewalk markings could be placed. A water hydrant on the west side will be relocated for better emergency use, he said.

Frost also told the board that the "fall-out shelter" sign recently put up conspicuously but at once removed would be replaced by a single sign on a light standard on the approach road—which, if not satisfactory as minimum requirement, would result in no sign at all.

Young GOP Dispute Hits Court

A factional dispute within the Marin County Young Republicans hit the courts today with arguments on whether the 1963 officers were legally elected.

The trial, before Marin Superior Court Judge N. Charles Brusatori, was expected to take most of today.

Attorney William O. Weissich called Young Republicans Joyce Eliott and Clifford Gerstner, who testified that at the election held at Bermuda Palms on Jan. 15, a "compromise slate" of officers was presented and declared elected without a formal vote.

The plaintiffs contend that the slate of new officers, headed by President Donald Black, took office illegally and in violation of the bylaws of the organization. Plaintiffs are Robert C. Carpenter, Joyce Elliott, and Thomas P. DeMund, all members of the organization.

Weissich said his clients want the entire slate of officers removed and a new and legal election held.

The officers now in office are defended by attorney C. John Bernt. The contend that the election was legal, and that they should continue in office.

At the January election meeting, a conservative faction of the Young GOP had hoped to put Walter McGovern in office as president.

Board Backs Copter Plan For County

Dealing with two county aviation matters, Marin supervisors yesterday backed helicopter service and found a roadblock in the way of developing the airport north of Novato.

Carroll A. Snyker, secretary of the county airport advisory committee, finally won board approval of his suggestion of Tomorrow may be the first day of spring, but the weatherman said there is a 70 per cent chance of rain in Marin County.

If you wanted to jump and dance across the grassy glen, you should have done it yesterday of today when gentle breezes and a warm sun made it seem like spring.

The season will start officially at 12:20 a.m. tomorrow with the vernal equinox.

GOING UP, UP, UP IN SAN ANSELMO

The three-story Ross Valley Savings and Loan Building now under construction at Ross and San Anselmo avenues is by far the tallest thing in the San Anselmo skyline. Completion by Maroney Construction of Burlingame is expected in June. The $533,000 building will replace the firm's present headquarters at 380 San Anselmo Avenue.

Temporary Medic Aide Announced

Temporary appointment of Dr. Michael Scholl of Tiburon to be county medical director, replacing Dr. Rafael G. Dufficy Jr. on the latter's resignation, was voted yesterday by Marin supervisors.

This was done on recommendation of the Marin Medical Society "that Dr. Scholl serve as an interim director until a decision is reached concerning possible organizational and structural changes in the county medical department and in the care of Marin's medically indigent population."

Dr. Scholl, now serving as part-time deputy county physician at $300 a month, was said to have agreed to serve in replacement to Dufficy at Dufficy's pay, which is in the $760-$955 per month range with privilege of continuing private practice.

But whereas the society thought Dr. Scholl would start April 1, Administrator Alan Bruce pointed out that Dufficy hasn't resigned yet.

Bruce said Dufficy's intention has been to quit when he assumes charge of his new Terra Linda Medical Hospital, originally intended only as a nursing home. He said this is expected to open about May 1. So the board unanimously voted to turn the job over to Scholl on an if and when basis.

REMODELING VOTED FOR COUNTY FARM

Marin County supervisors yesterday decided it made good economic sense to spend nearly $45,000 to remodel part of the county hospital and farm for uses likely to extend over 20 years.

Their action was to authorize the San Rafael architectural firm of Crawford and Banning to proceed with conversion work indicated as necessary by preliminary survey, but omitting a $4,000 item for a new parking area.

Without this, the charges, including conversion of the east wing for use by the county probation department, are expected to total over $47,000.

"This wouldn't be worth while if it were only for transient use," said public works director Donald R. Frost. "But we'd be creating offices which I believe the county could use for a long time. The work would be paid for in roughly 10 years by rent savings."

Administrator Alan Bruce said the building would be needed at least five years for probation purposes, but he thought proximity to Juvenile Hall made it likely that probation uses might be desirable for 15 or 20 years because of concentration of juvenile work.

Present equivalent space is costing $450 monthly, said Bruce.

Sausalito Disapproves Of Meter Revenue Bill

The Sausalito City Council last night voted disapproval of state Senate bill 38, which would require the city to use its annual $15,000 revenue from parking meters for parking lots solely. The city, according to City Mgr. Charles A. Brown, now spends $1,000 a year on its lots.

Brown gave the council a list of 23 bills proposed to the legislature which he said are of special interest to cities.

The council voted disapproval of Assembly bill 1194 and 1199. The first provides that firemen should not be employed by local agencies to exceed 56 hours a week. This, said Brown, if approved would require Sausalito to hire three additional men. AB 1199 would require firemen with more than five years service to be given 30 days leave of absence

Aid Asked In Latin America

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica—Cheered by a U.S. pledge to protect their coasts against Cuban infiltrators, six Central American chief executives make individual pleas to President John F. Kennedy today for economic aid to better the lot of their peoples.

Although advocates of drastic action against Fidel Castro lost out, the Latin presidents generally seemed satisfied and joined Kennedy in a seven-nation "Declaration of Central America" which expressed confidence that the Castro regime will fall soon.

TIGHTEN RING

Kennedy promised that the United States will tighten its anti-subversion ring around Cuba with more plane and ship protection of Central America's Caribbean coast.

An authoritative source said that Kennedy, in the private sessions yesterday, impressed the president of Panama, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua with the extent of U.S. military commitments—short of "shooting at Cuba"—which he revealed to them.

Kennedy also promised multi-million-dollar aid for their program of regional economic and social development. But each president had pet projects of his own and each was allotted a half hour today to plug them.

FAILURE FORECAST

This afternoon the president predicted that in attempting to export communism into the Americas the Soviet Union will go the way of England's George III and the Spanish conquerors of Latin America.

Addressing students at the University of Costa Rica, the president stressed that the United States and Latin American countries share a common heritage of independence.

"Too much blood has been shed over too many years to preserve our independence from foreign rule," he said. "And we can never be secure in our hemisphere until the Soviet Union goes the way of George III, the Spanish conquerors, Maximilian, and William Walker. And indeed it must and will."

(Walker was an American soldier of fortune who proclaimed himself president of Nicaragua early in this century.)

Kennedy addressed the students in the windup of his three-day visit to Costa Rica after talking during the day with the presidents of the six Central American nations.

SHOWS CANCELED

Candidates Balk At Radio Talks

Two of three "Marin Sounding Board" programs on the upcoming San Rafael city election have been canceled by radio KTIM because of refusal of some of the candidates to appear before the microphone.

The single such "Sounding Board" still scheduled will be aired at 9 a.m. tomorrow—but without one of the candidates.

The rash of refusals to appear on the programs— on which speakers are expected to reply to questions telephoned by listeners—was disclosed today as Kitty Oppenheimer, program conductor, announced she had canceled plans for "Sounding Board" on the chief of police and city attorney contests.

Nick Giampoli ousted police lieutenant who is running against his former boss for the chief of police job, agreed to appear, said Mrs. Oppenheimer. But Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa, who seeks a second term, and Vernon D. Thomas Jr., the third candidate, refused.

Of the two candidates for city attorney, John G. Buresh expressed willingness to appear on the program, but David Menary Jr., an incumbent city councilman seeking the city attorney post, declined.

Menary said he refused on advice of Thomas P. Boyd, who is his law partner and campaign manager. Boyd was an unsuccessful candidate for city attorney against A. E. Bagshaw four years ago.

It was understood that Chiesa and Thomas have said they would not appear on the same program or platform with Giampoli.

Tomorrow's "Sounding Board" will have as speakers Fred E. Jensen, incumbent, and Lothar Salin, candidates for city council, and John F. McInnis, who is unopposed for re-election as mayor. Incumbent Charles W. Aby, the third council candidate, declined to appear, citing pressure of professional appointments. He is an osteopathic physician.

The candidates' refusal to appear on the radio programs appeared to eliminate any possibility of their placing their reasons for seeking votes before a public forum. A survey by the Independent-Journal disclosed no civic organization in San Rafael desirous of sponsoring a candidates' night for those seeking election to city offices.

In contrast, candidates for the San Rafael Board of Education already have appeared together at two public forums and have several more scheduled.

$170,000 Bond Vote Due Fairfax

Trustees of the Fairfax School District last night tentatively set for June 11 a $170,000 bond election to authorize funds for a major school expansion program.

The $170,000 in bonds, still just an approximate figure, would put the district at its full bonding capacity, according to Supt. Homer Sisk. The district can borrow state funds only if it is bonded to capacity.

Voters in 1956 approved a $500,000 state loan, but only $91,000 was used. Authorization for a $409,000 loan still stands when the district is bonded to capacity, Sisk explained.

The building program includes purchase of an additional school site of 17 acres, probably in the north section of the district.

Sisk could give no figure at this time on what the purchase price would be.

Also in the program is the addition of three classrooms and site clearance and grading at Deer Park School at a total cost of $99,000. At Central School four new classrooms and additional land purchase would cost an estimated $145,000.

Trustees authorized a contract with San Rafael architects Crawford and Banning to prepare preliminary drawings of the additions and plot use of the new site.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Socialite Becomes Crown Princess

GANGTOK, Sikkim (AP)—Blessed by snow lions and billions of other deities, American socialite Hope Cooke silently exchanged white silk scarves with the crown prince of Sikkim today and became majarajkumarani, crown princess, of this small Himalayan state on the doorstep of Red China.

Namgyal

The crown prince, 39, a widowed father of three, smilingly helped an aide put a 12-foot white silk scarf around the neck of his 22-year-old bride. She smiled faintly as she watched her second cousin garland her bridegroom, the gold-robed maharajkumar.

Hope

The exchange completed the marriage in a mountaintop Buddhist chapel blazing with rich color. The marriage had been delayed a year on advice of the court astrologers who said the earlier date was not propitious.

The groom, Prince Palden Thondup Namgyal, sat cross-legged on a three-foot throne. Miss Cooke was at his side, sitting sideways on a slightly lower platform.

Byrd's USS Bear Sinks

BOSTON (UPI)—The USS Bear, the storied sailing ship that weathered 45 Arctic voyages and carried Adm. Richard E. Byrd to Antarctic, sank early today in choppy seas off Nova Scotia.

The Coast Guard here said the 89-year-old three-masted barkentine sank just as she appeared to be winning her final battle against the sea.

The tug Irving Birch was towing the Bear to Philadelphia where it was to be shown as a museum piece.

Jeff Donnell Sheds No. 3

REDWOOD CITY (AP)—Actress Jeff Donnell shed her third real-life husband yesterday and said "my best husband" was the make-believe one she had on television—George Gobel.

Miss Donnell won a divorce and an undisclosed property settlement from John L. Bricker, a Foremost Dairies executive. She charged that he belittled her in public and told her to shut up.

Her previous husbands were Michael Anderson and actor Aldo Ray.

"If I marry again," she said, "my husband will be a combination of Lew Ayers, Dave Garroway and Johnny Carson. But there aren't many around like that these days."

Gov. Brown Asks Major Reshuffling

By MORRIE LANDSBERG

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown today proposed a major reshuffling of state agencies and once more asked for sweeping power to reorganize the state government by executive order.

Brown called for four new departments, and overhaul of others, in a special message to the legislature. He acknowledged right off that the second stage of his streamlining plan would stir controversy.

The governor asked for legislation, including a constitutional amendment, to arm him with reorganization powers he said are now given to the president and some governors. A similar program was defeated two years ago.

Under the proposal, the governor would develop reorganization plans and present them to the legislature. The changes would become law 91 days after session's end unless either the Senate or Assembly adopted disapproving resolutions.

"This would increase flexibility in the organization of the executive branch," Brown said. "The governor would be responsible for determining necessary changes but the legislature would have veto power."

Brown abandoned a try to set up an Executive Office of the Governor, but urged creation of a new 300-million-dollar-a-year Department of General Services. It would take over housekeeping functions of the huge Department of Finance.

In 1961, the Democratic administration won legislative approval for the grouping of existing departments and bureaus under single administrators. The legislature authorized four of the super-agencies. Brown established four others on his own.

The governor, in his message today, requested legal status for the Business and Commerce Agency.

The agency would include liquor and other licensing boards, insurance, banking, savings and loan and real estate, consumer counsel, a new Office of California Development and a new Department of Housing.

The development office would take over functions of the Economic Development Agency and the World Trade Center Authority. Brown said he would spell out his proposal for a Department of Housing in a separate message.

The governor also recommended:

1. Transfer vocational rehabilitation from the Department of Education to the Health and Welfare Agency as a new department.

2. Change the name of the Department of Public Works to the Department of Highways and transfer its Division of Architecture to the General Services Department.

3. Assign the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Aging to Health and Welfare, the State Aeronautics Board and Division of Aeronautics to the Highway Transportation Agency and the Division of Fairs and Expositions to the Department of Agriculture.

4. Transfer the Office of Coordinator of Atomic Energy Development and Radiation Protection from the governor's office to the Department of Public Health.

5. Separate status for the Board of Corrections within the Youth and Adult Corrections Agency.

6. A special merit system for the upper echelon of civil service — division chiefs or higher—to "make it more certain," Brown said, "that managerial talent is used to its fullest potential."

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Sweden unveiled yesterday a test model of a light, low-slung turretless tank.

The tank weighs 36 tons, 15 tons less than the British Centurian tank now used by Sweden, but has a heavier cannon —105. mm. compared to the Centurion's 84 mm.—and eight machine guns against the British tank's two. Loading and ejection of shells are automatic.

Unruh Backs Berkeley Fair Housing

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles) last night endorsed the Berkeley fair housing ordinance, a state withholding tax and increased state aid to public schools.

His comments came at a public forum at Sacramento State College when he opened the session to questions from the audience after a speech endorsing medical care for the aged through social security.

Unruh said that if Berkeley citizens vote on April 2 to repeal a city fair housing law "it would be a long step backwards in the fight for civil rights."

If he lived in Berkeley, he said, he'd vote for the ordinance.

However, Unruh said, he still believes the legislature should watch the results of the vote as an indication of public sentiment on civil rights legislation.

A state law similar to the Berkeley ordinance has been proposed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown as the keystone of his civil rights program.

On the state withholding tax, proposed by Brown to start in 1964, Unruh said he favors it as the best way of putting the state's new residents on the tax rolls soon after their arrival.

Asked how long it will be before California must face an increase in state taxes, he replied:

"Not very long. In fact, we're facing it now, not head on but sort of obliquely."

He apparently referred to Brown's program of speeding income tax collections, expected to produce 386 million dollars in additional revenues over the next three fiscal years.

On school aid, Unruh said that the state's contribution has been falling steadily and should be increased "even if it means increasing taxes at the state level."

Asked about his differences with the California Democratic Council, the party's volunteer club movement, Unruh said he does not quarrel with its structure, but has differed with positions taken by its leadership.

He also criticized the CDC for failing to develop strength among minority groups and the poor, who he said are "not Philadelphia lawyers" and can't go around attending meetings in Fresno and Bakersfield.

Unruh said Democrats would not have won some elections if they had relied solely on the CDC's efforts.

In his speech, Unruh said he believed organized medicine made a "misguided and mistaken choice" in successfully lobbying for passage of the federal Kerr-Mills Act for medical aid to the aged.

He said the law merely points up the inequities in our system of medical care, and indicated he believed it would force approval of some more equitable system, such as one based on social security as advocated by President John F. Kennedy.

Novato High Shifts Emphasis To English

The emphasis was shifted from science and mathematics to English in new requirements for graduation from Novato High School adopted last night by the Novato Unified School District board.

The board cut out one of three foreign languages now taught in Novato schools, but decreed that instruction in Spanish will start hereafter in the fourth grade.

The changes were made on recommendation of Supt. James N. Bunker.

Novato heretofore has required two years of mathematics and two years of science in high school. Hereafter only one year of each will be required—the same as in San Rafael and Tamalpais High School Districts.

In English, however, the requirement will be increased from three years to four years. San Rafael and Tamalpais districts require only three years of English for graduation.

(College entrance requirements are higher, so that students planning to continue to college must take additional courses in the three basic fields.)

The emphasis on English was carried down to junior high school, as the board raised the reading requirement there from one semester to four—meaning that students will take reading throughout their two years in junior high.

Junior high rquirements in art and music were cut from one semester to a half semester each. One-semester courses in shop for boys and homemaking for girls will be added.

Driver education hereafter will be taught by general science teachers instead of being incorporated in social studies.

German will disappear from the Novato curriculum, although a second year German course will be taught next term for those taking first year German this year. Spanish and French will be continued and Spanish will start next year in the fourth grade, moving into fifth and sixth grades the following years so that beginning in 1965 all Novato elementary schools will have three years of Spanish.

More 'Block Teaching' Asked In Mill Valley

Dominic Bobbio, principal of Edna Maguire School, proposed to the Mill Valley School District board last night that "block teaching" in seventh and eighth grades be expanded to give children a greater part of the school day with one teacher.

Students now have one two-hour "block" studying English with one teacher. The rest of the day they have one-hour periods with different teachers. Bobbie proposed a three-period block for study of English and history for the fall semester. Proposal will be studied by the board.

This would give pupils an idea of a "home base" rather than moving from class to class and a feeling of belonging to something, Bobbio said.

Trustees adopted a 1963-64 school calendar of 178 days, the same as this year. School will begin Sept. 10, with teachers reporting Sept. 2. Summer school will be July 1-26, at Alto and Edna Maguire schools.

The board accepted resignations of Joyce Evans, Paula MacNeill, Beverly Boutet, and Robert E. Davidson. Mrs. Evans, fifth grade teacher at Homestead School, will accompany her husband while he does graduate work at University of Edinburgh; Mrs. MacNeill, district speech terapist, will move to Alameda; Mrs. Boutet is now on maternity leave; Davidson, guidance consultant and pupil personnel services director, will work for his doctorate at University of California.

Mrs. Harold H. Warriner of San Rafael will replace Mrs. Myron Cook, Alto School first grade teacher, when Mrs. Cook starts maternity leave in April, announced Supt. G. R. McConnell.

Hill Junior High Head Quits Job

Robert Patterson resigned last night as principal of Hill Junior High School in Novato to become a teacher in Novato High School.

Patterson's resignation appeared to be no surprise to Novato Unified School District trustees, who accepted it without comment and granted his request for assignment to a high school teaching position.

Patterson has been with Novato schools since 1953, previously teaching seventh and eighth grades in the neighboring San Jose Elementary School District. He taught seventh grade until opening of Novato High School, and was high school vice principal for one year before becoming Hill School principal in 1958.

Complaints regarding disciplinary problems at Hill School reportedly figured in a long series of closed meetings of the school board with Supt. W. J. J. Smith which preceded his resignation in December, 1961.

Supt. James N. Bunker said today the search for a replacement as Hill School principal will extend outside the district. "We want the best man for the job, whether he comes from within the district or outside of it," Bunker said.

Extension Of Water Service Is Approved

Extensions of water service to 276 lots was approved last night by directors of the North Marin County Water District. These include 219 lots in units 2 and 3 of San Marin, 44 lots in Marin Golf and Country Club Estates, and 13 lots in Rancho Village Unit 7.

A $10,368 contract to build two redwood water storage reservoirs was awarded to Saures Forest Products of Healdsburg. The tanks will be located at Novato Hills unit 1 and the Charles P. Davies Extension.

Dr. Easton Is 90

A dozen friends of Dr. Daniel E. F. Easton, retired physician and surgeon, will gather with Dr. and Mrs. Easton at their home at 73 Edward Avenue, Santa Venetia, this evening for a buffet dinner in observance of Dr. Easton's 90th birthday today.

Bugeia Unit Is Annexed To Novato

Bugeia Unit 2 of 53 acres off Bugeia Lane was annexed to the City of Novato last night after there was no protest at a citl council hearing at the community house.

This is the third annexation to the big Bahia Del Norte subdivision west of the Petaluma River and south of Black Jack Slough.

The council received 16 petitions for street lights. These were referred to the lighting committee for a report at the April 9 meeting.

Rental of the city's street sweeper for subdivisions during construction and the contractor's maintenance period was set at $15 per hour with a $25 minimum.

The firm of Rockwell and Banwell was officially hired as city architects to design the city swimming pool on the high school site.

Authorization to hire an assistant civil engineer by May 1 at a salary of $612 a month, a junior civil engineer by June 1 at $555 a month, and a stenographer-clerk at $357 a month was given to the public works department.

Welfare Director, Bagley Going To Medic Hearing

Rep. William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) expects to accompany Marin County Welfare Director Betty L. Presley to tomorrow's Sacramento hearing on the crisis in Medical Assistance to the Aged.

Bagley said he intends to make a statement following the one scheduled by Miss Presley.

The hearing will be conducted by the state Department of Finance, which set new low rates for the MAA program applicable May 1, at 10 a.m. in a hearing room in the Department of Employment Building.

William Slocum, operator of the Larkspur Convalescent Hospital and president of the Marin County Nursing Home Assn., said he plans also to go and make a statement. He said that James E. Moore of the Center Medical Hospital in San Rafael probably will accompany him.

BILLS

(vacation). Those in Sausalito now receive 15.

The council favored Assembly bill 141, which states a city is authorized to levy a tax on the privilege of occupying, for not more than 30 days, a room or rooms in a hotel or other lodging space. It voted disapproval of Senate bill 240, which forbids merger or consolidation under a single department head of the fire and police departments of any general law city.

Other bills are to be studied and discussed at the council's next meeting.

$1,500 In Liquor, Clothing Stolen

About $1,500 worth of clothing, liquor and household items were stolen from a home in the Meadowsweet area outside Corte Madera yesterday.

Albert L. Denney and Patrick Butler of 1100 Meadowsweet Drive told Sheriff's Deputy Edward A. Koehn the home was ransacked sometime during the day. A bedroom window had been broken for entry.

Among major items stolen were a radio-phonograph, new tape recorder, dozens of shirts, four suits, topcoats, record changer and amplifier, and about 40 bottles of whiskey.

79 Aboard Crippled Plane Land At Travis

TRAVIS AFB (AP) — Seventy-six military personnel and dependents, who had a scare when their plane developed engine trouble midway between Honolulu and California yesterday, arrived on another plane today.

They arrived an hour and 10 minutes early, surprising everyone at this base, and quickly departed on their way to destinations elsewhere around the country.

Lagunitas Trustees Accept $250 Gift

Trustees of the Lagunitas School District last night accepted with thanks a gift of $250 worth of books and records for the school library from the Parent-Teacher Assn.

Trustees also tentatively set April 25 as open house for public schools week observance. They also authorized hiring of the San Rafael firm of Dalton, Graupner and Barber to conduct the annual audit.

A dog that bit Kathy O'Kane on the leg March 9 in Kent Woodlands had not been found today, and the 13-year-old San Rafael girl may have to undergo the painful Pasteur rabies treatment if the animal is not located by Saturday.

Miss O'Kane and Lisa Dollar, who was with her, have described the dog as "boxer-colored and smooth-haired," Mrs. Bernard F. O'Kane of 231 Sienna Way said today.

A thief broke into a locked car at Muir Woods National Monument parking area yesterday and stole three purses containing about $160 in cash and travelers' checks and personal papers.

Ranger Lawson H. Brainerd reported the theft to the sheriff at 4:15 p.m. Victim was Melissa Stewart of 50 Walter Street, San Francisco.

Action Is Held Up On Tax Relief Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Strong opposition from Gov. Edmund G. Brown and Speaker Jesse M. Unruh held up Assembly action today on a bill to give a tax break to some 12,000 owners of duPont stock.

Due for a vote, the bill was assigned instead to the inactive file on motion of its author, Assemblyman Gordon Colgne (R-Indio).

He said the governor's office and Unruh felt it was too early in the legislative session to consider a tax relief measure, and he agreed to the delay.

"While I consider this a setback," he told a reporter, "I don't consider it a defeat."

Dr. Donald C. Fowler, Mill Valley, Dies At 64

Dr. Donald C. Fowler, Mill Valley general practitioner for 29 years, died toady at a local hospital after brief illness.

Fowler, 64, gave up his regular medical practice in September 1961, but continued to assist other doctors. He had worked since Jan. 1 for the county medical service.

For 25 years he was physician for Tamalpais High School.

He was born in Lincoln, Placer County, son of the late Larkin and Charlotte Fowler. He was graduated from University of California Medical School in the class of 1926. He practiced from 1927 to 1934 in Exeter, Tulare County, and came to Mill Valley in 1934.

Except for three years in the Army Medical Corps in World War II, and one year of practice in San Francisco, he practiced in Mill Valley. He turned his practice over to Dr. Harvey Forester in 1961.

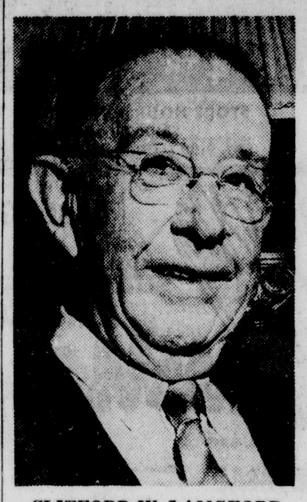

Fowler resided in Mill Valley at 17 Cornelia Avenue.

He was a member of the American Medical Assn., Marin County Medical Society, and Academy of General Practice.

COPTER

last week that the county file a statement with the Civil Aeronautics Board favoring helicopter service but avoid the position of active intervention in behalf of San Francisco and Oakland Helicopter Airlines.

John C. Cunningham of the 'copter service said he'd come to the conclusion that the statement as drafted by Snyker would serve the purpose. It was adopted, asking the CAB to grant a permanent or temporary certificate.

A letter of complaint from Dr. Donald A. Frier of 22 Belle Avenue, San Anselmo, over what he termed the "long plight" of the county airport caused Supervisor William A. Gnoss to say that development is being blocked by two things: Need for a move of parking area and shops northward, and failure of the state Public Utilities Commission to approve new road connection across railroad tracks to Highway 101.

"We can't build a road if we want to," said Gnoss. "The PUC has been sitting on this matter since last May and it may go to a public hearing."

Hub School Unit Still For Single Unification Area

The San Anselmo School District board last night reaffirmed its stand for unification of all schools in the Tamalpais Union High School District.

Proposals have been made to create from one to four unified districts out of the Tamalpais district area, which contains 11 elementary districts.

The board voted to instruct its representative to the augmented County Committee on School District Organization, John E. Wagstaff, to vote for single unification, and to abstain from voting on any alternative proposal if this should fail.

The San Anselmo district has been on record for a single unification since June 19, 1962, Supt. Stephen Parodi said.

Tam Valley Sanitary Annex Vote Agreed On

Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District directors last night agreed to set an election for either May 14 or 15 to determine whether to annex Tamalpais Woods subdivision to the district.

If the issue receives majority approval, this will be first step in establishing sewer service for about 100 householders. Next step would require residents to raise money through a special assessment district.

SUPERVISORS' ROUNDUP

Tiburon Beauty Shop In Home Causes Storm

Tiburon's tempest in a beauty parlor suddenly blew away in a zephyr yesterday when it was announced that application by Annette Routh to have the beauty parlor in her home had been withdrawn.

Both before county planning commission and supervisors, Mrs. Routh's transfer of her shop from downtown Tiburon to one room of her home at Tiburon Boulevard and Rock Hill Drive had blown up a storm. When the application for use permit for a business already under way was continued one week because Mrs. Routh's lawyer couldn't be present last Tuesday, a large group of Tiburon residents protested bitterly.

But word had gone out yesterday of Mrs. Routh's decision, announced in a letter to the supervisors, to move her shop out of her home "as quick as I can" and locate it in Mill Valley by April 1 or before.

"In view of the withdrawal there is no reason to be vindictive," said Supervisor Peter Behr. It was decided not to prosecute for violation unless after April 1.

The Board Of Supervisors Also:

1. Appointed Michael J. Cowley agricultural inspector at $426 monthly, Abraham Virdah sanitarian at $486, and Ernest Louis watchman at $331.

2. Confirmed appointment of Milton L. Stannard as Alto fire commissioner.

3. Allowed the Girl Scouts to sell cookies at the Civic Center entrance through the remainder of this month.

4. Approved agreement for Rudolph G. Theurkauf to design and construct Marin County's 1963 state fair exhibit.

5. Referred to county counsel and communications director a Marin Rod and Gun Club application to spend county fines money ($9,000 now on hand) for a short wave center and communications system designed to help wardens conserve wildlife.

6. Authorized Terra Linda Recreational District to insert the word "Parks" in its name.

7. Approved tentative map for Davis subdivision on Cypress Avenue, Kentfield, after favorable drainage and flood hazard report from county Public Works Department.

8. Ordered incorporation in West Marin Master Plan study of a Marin Rod and Gun Club recommendation for acquisition of fishing access on Papermill Creek at Point Reyes Station.

9. Continued hearing on a Marinwood Master Plan proposed amendment to 2 p.m. April 2 when other Marinwood items will be heard.

More than 300,000 persons are directly employed in the missile aircraft, rocket, electronic and related industries in the Los Angeles metropolitan area, according to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

SAUSALITO AGAIN TRYING TO HIKE PARKING FINES

Told there was a drop of $4,000 in major revenue sources during February below last year, Sausalito City Council last night decided to try again to get fines on parking meter tickets raised from $1 to $2.

A previous attempt was dropped when San Rafael and Mill Valley city councils declined to go along with the raise and municipal court judges declared the fines should be the same throughout the county.

The council asked City Atty. Leland H. Jordan to explore the matter, Councilman Michael Harris initiating the move.

City Mgr. Charles A. Brown, in his February financial report, said property tax was off $3,000, sales tax off $5,500, and building permits off $3,000. Parking and vehicle fines were up $3,000, parking meters and parking lots up $3,000, and interest up $1,000. Combining the six funds, there was an overall drop of $4,000.

The council approved Brown's request to contract with the State Department of Finance for a special census. Brown said the county has estimated a 700 increase in Sausalito's population. This would bring in $4,000 to $5,000 in state motor vehicle and gasoline tax funds, he said. Sausalito has had no special census since the 1960 federal census which showed 5,300 residents.

The interim use permit ordinance was extended three months to July 20. Mayor Paul Micou said the city is "engaged in wrapping up the zoning ordinance studies and there is a real necessity to extend the ordinance.

The Sausalito City Council Also:

1. Heard that the Marin Municipal Water District could not grant Sausalito's request to construct five years of water main replacements in one year since this would favor one community over another. Councilmen Howard Sievers (absent) and Harris were appointed to study the matter.

2. Directed Brown to ask the chamber of commerce to specify expenditures it has made and intends to make from $850 city budget funds.

3. Authorized Loren L. Jay, chairman of the People to People program, to spend up to $85 to attend conference in Los Angeles April 7-9.

4. Set hearing April 2 on appeal by Mrs. M. E. Forde from planning commission denial of use permit at Second Street and Sausalito Boulevard.

5. Heard a letter from John J. Gallas in which he asked, "Is Sausalito a dying city?" and then quoted Howard Moody and poet T. S. Eliot on dying cities.

6. Accepted two gifts from J. H. Madden, president of the Sausalito Yacht Harbor. The "paid" bill of $503 for Madden's firm having built a rock breakwater at Tiffany Park, and a $100 contribution to the park.

7. Heard that city planning consultant William E. Spangle Jr.'s zoning ordinance bill may reach $5,000. It was to be $3,000. The council will discuss this at its next finance committee meeting.

8. Granted extension of a use permit and variance to Douglas Lange Corp. to build a 62-unit hotel in the 800 block on Bridgeway, the Vina Del Mar Inn.

9. Granted Ellis Lando permission to fill underwater land in Marinship but held up approval of a similar request by A. G. Schoonmaker Co., asking the firm to provide aerial surveys so the fill can be checked.

10. Introduced an ordinance banning parking on portions of San Carlos Avenue between Spencer and Santa Rosa avenues.

11. Directed Brown to tell owners of Cote D'Azur Apartments the council is "very concerned" about a vent pipe being three feet, one inch above allowable height and a parapet wall being seven and one-half inches aboved planned height.

12. Adjourned to March 26.

Fairfax Woman In Fair Condition After Fall

Lillian Brungard, 53, of 200 Bolinas Road, Fairfax, was in fair condition at Marin General Hospital after a head injury suffered in a fall yesterday when her dog ran from her and tripped her with his leash.

Fairfax police reported that the dog got into a fight with another dog near the police station at 4 p.m. Mrs. Brungard, partially crippled from a stroke three years ago, struck the right side of her head in the fall. She was still unconscious at the hospital today.

Pink Houses, Three Wells On Agenda

"Pink houses," Three Wells Park and the traffic situation between Mill Valley and Muir Woods as it effects city streets will be on the agenda of the Mill Valley City Council at its meeting at 8 p.m. today.

The council is to hear a progress report from William Seavey of Corte Madera as to how he proposes to move two former motel buildings from the city's East Blithedale Avenue entrance. Teen-agers, in a separate petition, ask for the buildings, saying they will move them themselves to project 17 for a teen center.

A petition from citizens asking that traffic be re-routed from Montford, Molino, Edgewood avenues and Sequoia Valley Drive to State Highway 1 through Tamalpais Valley is to be heard under new business.

Last on the agenda, under correspondence, is a request from the Outdoor Art Club asking that G. C. Kott's encroachment permit allowing him to build a bridge over Cascade Drive in the vicinity of Three Wells Park be revoked.

S/Sgt. Lonzo Smith of Novato has arrived at Laon Air Base, France for duty under the U.S. Air Force's new overseas rotational assignment program, Operation Short Spurt. He will return to his permanent assignment at Hamilton Air Force Base following his Short Spurt tour of a few months.

Coroner Is Seeking Kin Of Dead Traffic Victim

The Marin County coroner's office is trying to locate relatives of Richard T. Hayashi, 52, an itinerant gardener and farm worker who was killed Monday when he stepped in front of a car on Highway 101 near Alto overpass, Asst. Coroner William Bradley said today.

Bradley said he has found that Hayashi was married from 1942 to 1956 to Masuko Minatoka, and that the couple had a son, Larry N. Hayashi, on Sept. 14, 1946. But he said he doesn't know where the victim's ex-wife and son are living now.

Hayashi died of multiple injuries when he was hit by a car driven by Dante Tognoli of Fairfax, Bradley said. A pathology report is still due.

Hayashi lived in Northern California since 1960, according to receipts and other papers found among the personal effects he carried in a knapsack. Prior to that he lived in Honolulu.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley.

Bill Against Charter Buses

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state Assembly has voted 61 to 8 for a bill which would put the Alameda-Contra Costa transit district out of the charter bus business.

The vote on the measure by Assemblyman John T. Knox (D-Richmond), came after charges there had been "ill-tempered and unfair lobbying" on the measure and that East Bay Area newspapers had been sold a bill of goods by a public relations man for the transit district.

The bill now goes to the Senate for final approval.

MULE GIVES BIRTH TO COLT

Mules, hybrid crosses between horses and donkeys, can't bear young, according to scientific theory. But Maud, owned by a Tucson, Ariz., rancher, gave birth to a colt. Veterinarians called it very rare, but didn't attempt to explain it. (AP Wirephoto)

HUB SCHOOL PAY INCREASES ASKED

A teachers' salary committee last night asked the San Anselmo School District board for raises next year, but not an across-the-board increase.

Nyal Worsham, a teacher at Isabel Cook School and chairman of the committee, proposed raising the $4,836 starting salary to $5,002, as well as increasing the present $8,964 maximum. But no new maximum figure was suggested.

The committee also felt the salary levels for teachers in their fourth, fifth and sixth years with the district were low by comparison with other districts in the county.

The board will consider a salary schedule during budget preparation. Supt. Stephen Parodi told the trustees that budget figures are indefinite because pending state legislation could make a difference of $47,000 to $45,000 in the amount of state aid the district will receive. He said two more teachers will be needed next year.

The board adopted the 1963-64 school calendar, in which schools will open Sept. 10 and operate through June 12 for a total of 179 teaching days.

Donald Wallace was appointed principal of summer school, which will be held June 19 through July 19 at Brookside School for present third through seventh grades.

Rulon Cook, a graduate intern working in the district, reported that achievement and ability tests given San Anselmo students show that they are above average for their grade levels.

The board accepted resignations of Jo Ann Sawyer, second grade teacher at Brookside School, and Mrs. Karla Bille, third grade teacher at Wade Thomas School. Miss Sawyer will leave at the end of this school year to be married. Mrs. Bille's resignation, effective April 6, is for maternity reasons. She will be replaced by Mrs. Joan Raddue, a former third grade teacher in the district.

The board adjourned until April 2, when it will hear curriculum reports on arts and music. The next regular meeting will be April 16.

Kobseff's Benefit Off Again

Nick Kobseff has had his broad shoulders pinned to the mat again and his "Country Holiday" benefit show recently scheduled for next Saturday at Nicasio has been postponed.

Kobseff's second fall came in the form of an edict from the State Athletic Commission that no professional wrestling matches will be permitted until the organization "Marin Children Unlimited Foundation" which he heads has filed its incorporation papers with the secretary of state.

Incorporation papers are being prepared, Kobseff said, but they will not be ready for another 30 days.

Boxing has also been ruled out. "The commission won't allow it in combination with other acts," Kobseff noted ruefully.

Canadian farms, like those in the United States, are getting bigger and fewer.

Novato School Job Awarded; Bid Is Promptly Challenged

Fostmeier Construction Co. of Mill Valley last night was awarded the contract for a five-classroom addition to Novato High School, on a low bid of $99,950.

The award by the Novato Unified School District board was promptly challenged by another of the five bidders, Robert Miller of San Rafael, on the basis that when all alternates were included, his bid was low. However, the board had eliminated two of the six alternates. For the work awarded, Miller's bid totaled $105,277.

Three other bidders were W. J. Kubon Co., J.A. Garavaglia, and Christensen and Foster.

In light of Miller's challenge, the board decided to submit the matter to the county counsel for a ruling.

The Novato School Trustees Also:

1. Approved hiring the firm of Rockwell and Banwell, designer of the high school addition, as architect for the community swimming pool to be built on the high school campus.
2. Voted to set up a medical advisory board to advise on such matters as physical examinations for students, dental health program, etc. Membership will include three doctors, school nurses, a school administrator, a Parent-Teacher Assn. representative, and perhaps a representative of the county health department.
3. Decided to hire a psychologist to test gifted children, at cost of $1,000.
4. Authorized purchase of $2,000 of library equipment for Olive and Marion schools.
5. Accepted resignations of Rebecca Miller, school nurse now on leave; De Lone Kone, secretary at Rancho School, and Elaine Wright, secretary in the district office. Marion Watson was hired to replace Miss Wright.
6. Hired Arnold Griewe as inspector on Lu Sutton School construction.
7. Voted support of Assembly Bill 888, a school finance measure.

Honor T To Initiate New Members At Tam

Tamalpais High School's honor society, Honor T, will initiate new members at 8 p.m. March 28 in Ruby Scott Auditorium.

Other activities coming up include a benefit movie to be held at Mill Valley's Sequoia Theater at 7:30 and 9 p.m. March 20 and the sale of refreshments at March 20 and 21 performances of "The Crucible" at the school. Proceeds from both events will be used for the E. E. Wood scholarship fund.

Nearly 254 million passenger-car repair jobs are undertaken each year by the nation's automotive service garages.

Rafferty Suggestions Are Used In Fairfax

Trustees of the Fairfax School District last night asked that State Supt. of Public Instruction Maxwell Rafferty be told that most of the suggestions he made in a recent letter to school board presidents throughout the state are being carried out at Fairfax.

The letter will also ask that such letters in the future be addressed to the clerk of the board in Fairfax and not to President Fay Jensen.

Rafferty's letter of March 28, had some school board presidents in Marin County steaming. It gave three suggestions for improving instruction for the "kids."

The letter urged that phonics be emphasized in teaching reading, less time be lost to other functions than instruction, and that the label "social studies" be discarded in favor of civics, geography and history.

Supt. Homer Sisk said he was instructed to tell Rafferty that phonics is "an important tool in developing word attack skills" in the Fairfax district, that interruptions during the school day have been reduced and that history, geography and civics are related and it is extremely difficult to teach them separately.

$177,000 In Budget Hikes Proposed For Three Schools

Increases totaling $177,000 for next fiscal year are proposed in three county school budgets reviewed last night by the Marin County Board of Education.

No action was taken on the budgets at the preliminary study session last night, as status of state funds which contribute toward them remains unclear.

The three budgets are for the county school service fund, special education fund, and San Quentin Prison education program. The San Quentin program is the only one of the three for which the increase was proposed.

The school service fund proposed by the county superintendent's office calls for $684,000 compared to the current budget of $557,000. Special education funds, including money for the Marindale School for handicapped children, may be about $409,000 for the next fiscal year, compared to $357,000 currently. The San Quentin education fund may remain at about $200,000.

The board will consider the budgets again at its regular meeting April 1.

Subdivision Lacks Area For School

Novato Unified School District trustees, faced with only 15 acres to provide a school for 1,400 to 1,500 pupils expected in a new subdivision, last night called for closer cooperation by the Novato Planning Commission.

The board was shown plans for Bahia del Norte subdivision of 1,500 lots on 908 acres. Only one school site of 28 acres is shown. And Richard Banwell of the school architectural firm of Rockwell and Banwell told the board the site is so steep that only 15 acres are useable. Population of Bahia del Norte was estimated at about one pupil per lot.

The board voted to ask the planning commission to allow a look at school possibilities next time before approving a major subdivision.

Rights For Teachers

SACRAMENTO (CNS)— The Assembly has passed, 44-23, and sent to the Senate a bill which would give school teachers who are elected to the legislature the same rights for leaves of absence as teachers entering military service.

The Sausalito City Council last night decided to continue efforts to get the taxi stand at the end of El Portal relocated to the vicinity of the Greyhound Bus Depot.

But it found itself at something of an impasse since Mrs. Hazel Thomas, owner of the taxi company, said she is financially unable to re-establish in the new location and, if forced to move, may have to dispatch cabs from her home.

The matter was carried over with City Mgr. Charles A. Brown asked to work toward a solution.

Bus Boy Injured In Highway Accident

Paul Hu, San Francisco restaurant bus boy, suffered bruises when his sedan bounced off an embankment near the Sausalito northbound turnoff road from Highway 101 at 1:40 p.m. yesterday. The California Highway Patrol took him for first-aid treatment to the nearby bus station.

Donald K. Swisher of 587 Entrata Drive, Novato, declined hospitalization for minor injuries suffered in a two-car collision at 8:15 p.m. yesterday on Highway 101 just south of Atherton Avenue. His southbound car rammed that of Leon Reymand, a retired Santa Rosa resident, when Reymand tried to execute a U-turn on the highway, according to the patrol.

A.F. Promotion

David K. Moran of San Rafael has been promoted to airman second class in the Air Force at Itazuke Air Base, Japan, where he is assigned to the 7th Aerial Port Squadron. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell M. Moran of 8 Hayes Street.

Kentfield School Building Is Backed

"Whole-hearted support" of the $850,000 construction bond issue of the Kentfield School District on the April 16 ballot was unanimously voted last night by the board of the Greenbrae Property Owners Assn.

The seven directors present voted the backing after discussion at a special meeting addressed by district Supt. Howard C. Harmon.

Tense Nerves Block Bowels

New laxative acts on colonic muscles...de-constipates overnight.

The muscular wall of your colon contains nerves known to medicine as Auerbach's Plexus. In regular people, these nerves tell the colon muscles to propel and expel waste from the body.

But tense nerves or emotional upset can block your normal bowel habits. Your colon muscle impulses are no longer strong enough to eliminate waste—which dries and shrinks, further aggravating the condition.

The most effective relief, many doctors say, comes from a bulking action combined with a colonic nerve stimulating action. Of all leading laxatives only a new tablet called COLONAID gives you this special combination for 3-way overnight relief:

(1) COLONAID stimulates colonic nerve network, to further activate and regularize its muscular "movement". (2) COLONAID's unique re-bulking action helps re-tone tense colon muscles. (3) COLONAID moisturizes for easy passage without pain or strain.

COLONAID even relieves chronic constipation overnight; yet it is clinically-proved gentle even for expectant mothers. Get COLONAID today. INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢.

Marinite Reappointed To Adult Authority

Reappointment of John Wesley Brewer of San Rafael and John Gillies Bell of San Dimas to the California Adult Authority was announced today by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

"Jack Bell and John Brewer have merited reappointment to this important authority by their untiring efforts," said the governor. "I am proud to call on their services for another four years."

Both have been on the Adult Authority since 1959.

Brewer, who is 47, has served on the Attorney General's Citizens' Advisory Committee on Crime and Delinquency Prevention; the Western Probation, Parole and Correctional Assn.'s committee on delinquency and crime prevention, and the executive committee of the Los Angeles County Committee on Human Relations. He is a Democrat.

Brewer and his wife, Joyce, and two children reside at 134 Golden Hinde Boulevard.

Members of the Adult Authority receive $19,101 per year.

Salesman Pleads In Molest Case

Robert Delos Butts, 25, a San Anselmo used car salesman accused of lewd and lascivious conduct toward a 7-year-old-boy, pleaded innocent yesterday before Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Municipal Court.

The judge set 11 a.m. Friday as the time for a preliminary hearing. Butts is represented by the Marin public defender.

Butts, who gave his last address as 4 East Court, San Anselmo, was arrested by Fairfax police last Friday night. Butts is suspected of molesting the boy in a Fairfax apartment while the boy's parents and older sister were away.

Cushing: Had Permission To Cut Trees

SQUAW VALLEY (AP) — Alex Cushing, ski resort operator accused of cutting trees on state park land without permission, replied today:

"I have permission in writing from the head man of the state parks to cut the trees we had to cut to install a new ski lift.

"Apparently they had forgotten about the letter dated June 18, 1962 in which permission was granted by Edward Dolder, State Park chief.

"I took the letter to Dolder after I had been arrested and he tried to call the whole thing off. He called the district attorney in Auburn in my presence and I don't know why the matter was not dropped."

Hippocrates prescribed walks to prevent emotional disturbance, hallucinations and expansion of the waistline.

Terre Haute Business Fire

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP) — Fire swept through Terre Haute business district today, destroying 10 stores, injuring three firemen and causing several million dollars property damage.

Five buildings were destroyed and others were damaged in a seven-hour blaze whipped by 30 mph winds. Firemen controlled the fire at 8:32 a.m., but kept a four-block downtown area roped off.

U. S. 40 and other downtown streets were closed by piles of brick from fire-shattered walls.

Three firemen were injured as a brick wall collapsed. Their condition was not believed serious.

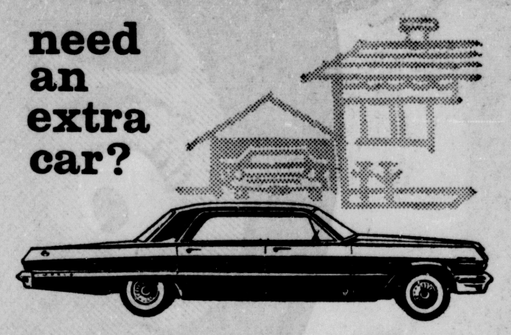

Chief Norman Fesler was treated in a hospital for lacerations and exhaustion but returned to direct the fight.

Two other firemen also were treated for cuts and smoke inhalation.

The fire started in a bowling alley in th ebasement of a four-story building that formerly housed the Deming Hotel.

Rugged Japanese Utility Vehicle Being Demonstrated In Larkspur

Hil Probert Motors in Larkspur—ranking among the 10 top Toyota Land Cruiser dealers in the U.S.—has launched a spring demonstration program on this rugged four-wheel drive Japanese utility vehicle that has nine forward and three reverse power combinations. Trial rides and prizes are being given.

Since it is claimed the car can climb hills in excess of 64 degrees, it is of particular interest to sportsmen who like to travel in out of the way places. It is powered by a 135-H.P. engine, seats seven adults and their gear. Many replacement parts are standard and available at U.S. stores. Through trade agreements it is priced about $1,000 less here than in any other country.

WHY "Lindsay" means the best RIPE OLIVES

The dry, warm Lindsay area of California, with its plentiful supply of water, is ideal for olive growing. Here, olives ripen on the trees... then are processed and canned under strict quality control by the growers themselves. Try these olives, black or green... whole or pitted... and you'll discover their very special flavor.

For recipes and serving suggestions, write: Lindsay Ripe Olive Company, Lindsay, California

Savings Firm To Show Drake's Brass Plate

Citizens Federal Savings and Loan Assn. will officially observe the opening of its new office in the Northgate Shopping Center at Terra Linda on April 1.

The firm has occupied temporary quarters in the center since December, 1961.

Dr. Karl D. Arends, vice president and manager of the Northgate office, said the opening will feature a display of Sir Francis Drake's historic "plate of brass," unearthed by Beryle Shinn near Greenbrae in 1937. The plate, which claimed possession of California for England in 1579, will remain on view at the Citizens office through April 10, under armed guard.

A 10-day opening celebration period will commence at 9 a.m. on April 1 with ceremonies presided over by Mayor John F. McInnis of San Rafael, who will unveil a large wall plaque reproduction of Drake's brass plate. Shinn, who discovered the plate, will be a guest of honor.

The office will hold open house daily during the period from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. and to 8 p.m. on Friday, April 5. An art show representing the work of members of the Marin Society of Artists and a special display of floral arrangements for the home under auspices of the Decoration Guild of the Marin Art and Garden Center will be held commencing April 3. The replica of Drake's plate will remain on the wall of the new offices as a permanent part of the decorations.

Citizens Federal maintains offices throughout the Bay Area as well as in San Rafael. The main office is at 706 Market Street, San Francisco, where a new three-million-dollar headquarters building is under construction.

New Scholarship Scheduled For Terra Linda High

A new scholarship award program for Terra Linda High School seniors was announced yesterday by the school's parent-teacher association.

Using profits from the Terra Linda High School "world fair" held last spring, the P-TA will award $100 scholarships to seniors for "academic excellence in each of the several departments at the school."

The awards will be given to outstanding seniors in art, business education, English, foreign language, homemaking, industrial arts, mathematics, music, physical education, science, and social studies.

Recommendations for the awards will be made by the faculty before May 1, said P-TA president David C. Shepherd.

New Business Will Feature Unfinished Works

Mull Dresden Craft, a new store selling finished and unfinished figurines, wall plaques, lamps and other art objects, has opened at 1609 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

The business is owned by Mrs. Charlotte Mull, 2130 Las Gallinas Avenue, Marinwood, who said she has spent several years in the work, both as a hobby and professionally supplying products for wholesale houses.

She said she will give free instruction in painting unfinished objects to purchasers.

She is assisted part-time in the business by her husband, Richard Mull.

Commerce Committee Guest of Bus Line

Members of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce transportation committee yesterday were guests of Richard and Robert L. Peterson and Richard Smith of Marin Transit Authority for a bus ride to Peacock Gap, where the committee met for lunch.

The bus company officials outlined their plans for extending routes to Hamilton Air Force Base, Lucas Valley, San Anselmo and Greenbrae if they receive approval by the State Public Utilities Commission after an April 5' hearing in the Civic Center.

Second Annual Water Safety Poster Contest Is Underway

The second annual water safety poster contest, sponsored by the Marin County Sheriff's Marin Patrol, is open to high school students until April 30.

A $50 U. S. Saving Bond will go to the winner, and a $25 bond to the runnerup. Albert Kelly, chairman, said that other prizes may be added.

All high school students in Marin County are eligible, except families of members of the sheriff's offices or the Marin Patrol. Posters may be mailed or delivered to Marin County Sheriff's Marine Patrol, care of Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, Court House, San Rafael. Deadline is midnight, April 30.

Drawings should be in black and white on 12 by 18 inch paper, with a one inch margin at top and sides and three inches at bottom. Words are premitted but should be kept to a minimum.

Contestants should put their names, addresses, telephone numbers, names of schools and experience in boating, if any, in the lower part of the poster.

KENNETH J. PREBLE
Quits Kentfield schools

Preble Is Leaving School Job

Kenneth J. Preble, 35, principal of Greenbrae and Wolfe Grade schools the past three years, announced his resignation today effective June 30.

He said he was considering "one very good possibility of a new job."

Supt. Howard C. Harmon of the Kentfield School District said Preble's departure "will be a loss to the district." It will be presented to the district trustees' meeting at 7:45 p.m. next Monday in Wolfe Grade School library.

Preble was hired as principal of the two schools July 1, 1960, at $10,000 a year and raised to $10,650 last July 1. In his post he has shuttled between the two schools in charge of 27 classroom teachers and 805 of the district's 1,415 pupils.

He received his doctorate in educational administration from the University of Chicago last December. Previously he received a master's degree from the same university and his bachelor of arts from University of Miami. He was born in Chicago and before coming to Marin was an elementary school teacher and principal in Park Forest, South of Chicago. HUB WOMAN JAILED AFTER SPEED CHASE

A 36-year-old San Anselmo woman was arrested by San Anselmo and San Rafael police early today after a 75 to 85-mile-an-hour auto chase.

Frances Lucille Norton, 36, of 86 Medway Road, posted $979 bail at Marin County Jail with the promise to appear in Marin Municipal Court tomorrow afternoon to answer charges of drunken and reckless driving, evading and resisting arrest, and refusing to obey a lawful order, according to Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani.

San Anselmo Officer Robert White saw her car go through a stop sign at Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Red Hill Avenue at 2 a.m. He stopped the car at Ross Valley Road and Redhill Avenue. But the woman drove away again.

White was joined in the chase by Sgt. Ray Velati of the San Anselmo police and Officers Gerald Souza and Richard Douglas of San Rafael police. They didn't catch her until her car slowed down after hitting a traffic island at Second and Irwin streets.

McCovey's Biggest Thrill Is Being Wanted By Fans, Needed By Giants

CONNOLLY

PHOENIX—In the beautiful world of Willie McCovey there exists one nightmare to haunt his memory. It took more than six interviews with more than a dozen sports writers, from all parts of the country, to jerk it out of him.

"Ah has few regrets in my brief major league career," Willie was saying in one of his daily press conferences. The scribes were pasting him with all sorts of questions and asking his opinions on everything from short skirts to Capri pants.

"Well," Willie said, reflecting-like, "Ah guess you could say my biggest hurt was being sent back to the minors for a few short weeks in 1960. What made it hurt most was that I had been named rookie of the year only a few short months before.

"Ah tells you fellas, ah felt ah never had a friend. I jes' knew all baseball fans were off me and felt sure it was the end of the line for me.

"Now as ah reflect, it was the best thing that happened. I needed a change of scenery to let the swelling get out of mah head. All that adulation of big league praise was swell but it hurt me. And the worst part of it all was ah jes' loved hearing people say nice things about me. Then one morning the balloon blew up and ah gets shipped to Tacoma. Brother that was like getting a sharp pointed knife stuck in mah heart.

"THE WORDS of glory and the winds of hate collided head on, sweeping me into a frenzy ah never thought I could get over."

Willie McCovey has come a long ways since 1960. He has learned to take the sweet with the sour.

"Mah biggest thrill right now is being WANTED and next to that my finest feeling is knowing I'm needed," explains Willie.

Like everybody else, McCovey says proudly, "Ah helped win the pennant in 1962. No one ball player won the pennant—Mays Cepeda, Alous, Kuenn, Haller or anybody else. We all pooled our talents and nailed the flag down.

"BUT AH knows now, ah helped and it makes me feel right now ah's looking at the world through rose colored glasses. And ah hopes I'm not color blind, either."

One of the Boston writers asked Willie if he noticed any shift in the Yankee infield in the ninth inning of the last game of the World Series.

"Not at the time," Willie sez, "but for three months afterwards, ah began recounting every move of everybody on the Yankee club and ah agrees, mebbe Richardson, the Yankee second baseman, did nudge a little closer to second base, where he caught my line drive. Ah really thinks if he had been playing where he belonged, my drive might have been a hit. But he was moving over because he knew Matty Alou was on third base."

Willie McCovey today stands out as the greatest single attraction on the Giant payroll. And that includes the incomparable Willie Mays, Felipe Alou and Orlando Cepeda.

People love Willie McCovey's simplicity and his boyish mannerisms. He always smiles, never pouts.

"A LOT of people think Im too easy going and should hustle more," says Willie, "but ah knows I'm not loafin. I guess I'm just the kind people think don't care. But ah ain't."

The Willie McCovey today denies he ever said he didn't like playing the outfield.

"Ah might have said ah didn't know how to play the outfield, but now ah likes it and loves playing there. It is much easier than first base."

McCovey attributes much of his help in the outfield to Willie Mays, whom he says has been a tremendous aid.

"Willie always seems to be within shouting distance whenever I catch an outfield fly. And a guy like me can't ask for any more help than that."

Giants Pffft Without The WOW Boys

PHOENIX (UPI)—When they don't have the WOW Boys, the San Francisco Giants don't present much of an offense.

The WOW Boys—Willie, Orlando, and Willie—sat it out yesterday at Mesa, and Chicago edged the Giants 3-2 before a sun-boiled crowd of 3,037.

The Giants' fifth loss in their last six Cactus League contests probably came about because Mays, Cepeda, and McCovey were out of the contest. But a more obvious cause occurred when shortstop Jose Pagan committed a key bobble in the sixth inning to let in the deciding run.

But there was a modicum of joy in the Giant camp. Gaylord Perry and Jim Duffalo combined on a six-hitter for the Giants to stay in the running for those elusive spots still open on the San Francisco pitching staff.

Duffalo was especially effective as he tossed two shutout innings and fanned a couple of batters.

Dick Ellsworth, a slow-throwing lefty, had the Giants fishing at his dewdrops and fanned seven in three innings. A total of 15 Giants struck out during the afternoon.

San Francisco's seven hits were strewn among the same number of players.

Today, San Francisco took on Houston here.

Manager Alvin Dark named Bob Garibaldi and Bob Bolin to pitch against the Colt varsity and Don Larsen to hurl in the battle between Giant and Colt "B" teams. Dark believes his second-line pitchers should get a shot with the varsity in the spring, while he starts his big winners in "B" squad battles.

Tomorrow, it will be Jack Fisher against the Angels at Palm Springs with 24-game winner Jack Sanford serving 'em up in a rematch with the Houston "B" squad.

Friday, Juan Marichal will go at Palm Springs, marking the first appearance of the late-signing right hander.

Liston To Fly Back To Florida

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Despite stormy objections by his adviser, heavyweight champion Sonny Liston agreed to return from Chicago today for an official examination to determine whether he is unable to fight Floyd Patterson.

The Miami Beach Boxing Commission after a hearing last night in which Liston's Miami physician, Dr. Luke Baird, said he had no conclusive evidence that Liston had torn the cartilage in his left knee.

Jack Nilon, Liston's adviser, notified the commission today after a talk with Liston that the champion would arrive later today.

The commission had ordered Liston to return by 2 p.m. Friday.

Nilon made a bitter protest of the decision at the hearing but failed to sway Chairman Fred Aaronson and other commissioners.

Liston took off suddenly for his home in Chicago, after weeks of controversy and conflicting statements over his knee and the state of his health. Nilon requested last night's hearing and asked for an indefinite postponement of the fight with Patterson, now scheduled for April 10 after a postponement from April 4.

COVER UP

"I tried to cover the injury up," Nilon said. "When Liston got on that plane for Chicago, he weighed 235. If there is an operation, it will be eight weeks before he can start training again. Then it will take several months to get him in shape. There is no way of saying when he can fight again."

Liston weighed 214 when he knocked out Patterson in the first round in Chicago last September.

Dr. Baird said that when Liston first went to him, there was a swelling of the knee joint, indicating a strain on the the ligaments.

"The injury responded well to ligament treatment and I thought it would be all right for him to resume training," the doctor said.

"He worked out three days and the knee was fine. Then, last Wednesday, he complained about it again. An examination showed a thickening of the lining of the knee joint. It pointed to the posibility of a torn cartilage, but I was not positive."

HILLER TOO SLOW—Giant infielder slides into the waiting glove of Cub catcher Ralph Holding in fifth inning of yesterday's exhibition game in Mesa, Ariz. Hiller tried to score on a short single to centerfield by Felipe Alou and was thrown out by Nelson Mathews. (AP Wirephoto)

Orioles Look Like Contenders, Thanks To Winter Trades

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Baltimore Orioles, traveling along baseball's exhibition trail undefeated in 10 games, seem to have located the glory road they suddenly stepped off in September 1960.

In 1960 the Orioles battled the New York Yankees nip and tuck before losing out for the American League pennant. They were in first place on Sept. 9 and on Sept. 15 were still virtually tied for the top with an 83-58 record to 82-57 for the Yanks. Then came a disastrous series with the Yanks and the Orioles finished second, 8 games behind with an 89-65 record.

The Orioles slipped to a third place finish in 1961, 14 games back of the Yankees, and last year dropped to seventh place, 19 games out of first.

Now with Luis Aparicio, Al Smith and Pete Ward obtained in an off-season trade with the Chicago White Sox, a sharp reversal seems evident.

It was a triple by shortstop Aparicio that started the Orioles on the way to their 10th straight victory Tuesday, 4-3 over the White Sox at Sarasota. It triggered a three-run first inning and the Sox never caught up.

The world champion Yankees continued at the bottom of the A.L. standings with a 3-8 mark. They rapped out 15 hits but nevertheless lost to Kansas City 0-5 at Bradenton. Two homers by rookie Dick Green led the A's. Green's first homer came with one on in the seventh and wiped out a 5-4 Yankee lead.

Al Kaline's four hits and the pitching of Hank Aguirre led the Detroit Tigers to their fifth straight triumph, 9-3 over the Los Angeles Dodgers at Lakeland. Aguirre worked six innings and has not yielded an earned run in 13 innings. Before the game the Tigers announced that pitcher Frank Lary had signed his contract.

Cleveland smashed out 18 hits and crushed Houston, the National League exhibition leader, 13-3 at Tucson. Willie Kirkland led the onslaught with four hits as the Indians won their fourth straight.

CINCY WINS

Cincinnati, helped by John Edwards' two-run homer, nipped Minnesota 5-4 at Orlando and Norm Larker's ninth-innings single drove in the winning run for Milwaukee as the Braves edged Pittsburgh 7-6 at Fort Myers.

Lee Thomas homered and drove in another run with a single to lead the Los Angeles Angels to a 5-1 victory over Boston at Palm Springs.

Pitching dominated the other games in which the Chicago Cubs defeated San Francisco 3-2 at Mesa and St. Louis whipped the New York Mets 7-3 at St. Petersburg.

Left-hander Curt Simmons of the Cardinals twirled five hitless innings against the Mets, then yielded two scratch singles before finishing his six-inning stint.

MARIN PREP SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS

Drake High School's baseballers nipped DeAnza High School yesterday 2-1 on the Drake field, scoring their two runs in the fifth inning.

Winning pitcher was Steve Miller who went all seven innings, striking out nine and walking two. He gave up three hits, a triple, double and a single.

Lou Gallagher was the leading hitter for Drake with a pair of singles. Drake registered one double play of the game, Tom Manahan to Terry Tadlock to Mike Crabtree.

Redwood Wins Shutout

Behind the two-hit pitching of Scott Davi, the Redwood High School Giants shut out the baseballers of Oakland High School yesterday 2-0 in a game played in Oakland.

The Giants scored a run in each the second and fifth innings. Leading hitters for Redwood were Steve White with a triple and single and Ray Maher with a double. Redwood had a total of nine hits.

Davi, who struck out eight Oakland batters, faced only 24 batters in the seven-inning contest. Besides the two singles allowed by Davi, the only other base runner for Oakland got on base via an error. Davi did not walk a man.

San Rafael opens defense of its league championship Friday at Drake High, 4 p.m.

Hornets Win, 6-1

The Novato High School varsity baseball team downed Sonoma High School 6-1 yesterday and the junior varsity game with Sonoma was called because of darkness with the score tied at 1-1.

Tom Miller was the winning pitcher for the Hornet baseballers, going all the seven-inning stint and scattering seven hits. Gary Fritz led the hitters with a triple.

The Novato freshman team white-washed the St. Vincent's frosh, 13-0.

The baseballers at Marin Catholic High School were dumped by Bishop O'Dowd 6-0 yesterday in a game on the road.

Dan Ayala, winning pitcher for O'Dowd, went the distance in striking out 13 and allowing only one hit, a double by the Wildcats' Joe Hebel in the second inning.

Losing pitcher for Marin Catholic was John Forsythe. The loss gave Marin Catholic a one win, two loss and one tie record.

Tam Swimmers Win

Moyer, Dupas Don't Want To Mix In Oakland

OAKLAND (AP) — Champion Denny Moyer and challenger Ralph Dupas won't be fighting in Oakland for the world junior middleweight boxing title after all.

The on-again, off-again April 15 bout is off for good, co-promoter Art Benjamin said yesterday.

Benjamin said the fighters told him they could earn more money by fighting elsewhere. He reportedly had guaranteed Moyer, of Portland, Ore., $8,000 to defend here.

'FOOTBALL FIX'

Phone Call Record Sought In 'Bama

ATLANTA (AP) — Telephone company officials are hunting for records of a long-distance telephone call reportedly made by Wallace Butts to Alabama Coach Paul Bryant.

The Saturday Evening Post says Butts, former athletic director at the Universit y of Georgia, telephoned Bryant information concerning the Georgia-Alabama football game last fall.

Both Butts and Bryant denied they rigged the game, which Alabama won 35-0. The magazine says the Atlanta insurance salesman, George Burnett, overheard the telephone conversation.

John J. Ryan, Georgia division commercial manager for Southern Bell Telephone Co., said it is possible for a call to be cut into a long-distance call as Burnett claims happened to him.

SUBPOENA REQUIRED

But even if records of the telephone call are found, Ryan said, the company could release them only under subpoena.

The Post article says a telephone company official, not identified, confirmed that the call was made.

Ryan said yesterday: "We are having difficulty locating the person who supposedly confirmed the call."

The FBI announced in Washington that it will not investigate the incident since preliminary inquiries show that no federal law was involved.

More Rain Threatens Title Bouts Tomorrow

LOS ANGELES (AP)—There's another threat of rain just over the horizon as promoters labor to get the triple title boxing show back on the road.

All that's needed to get things started is a vote of confidence from the weatherman. And he has given a tentative nod of approval.

The fight is set for Thursday night. The weatherman says there is another storm in the offing, but it probably won't arrive until midnight Thursday.

After a long, dry winter, the rains have apparently begun. The fight—outdoors at Dodger Stadium—was rained out Saturday by one of the fiercest downpours seen by the natives in years.

The six fighters are back in fighting trim and words of optimism glowed in each camp today as the principals again went into semi-seclusion to await the first bell in Chavez Ravine.

The bouts and probable favorites in the 15-rounders:

Welterweight champion Emile Griffith a 7-5 favorite to retain the title against Luis Rodriguez.

Featherweight champion Davey Moore to defeat top challenger Sugar Ramos, odds at about 2½-1.

Raymundo "Battling" Torres 3-1 over youthful Roberto Cruz for the vacant, 140-pound, or junior welterweight, title.

'Irish George' Makes A Comeback; Danes Learn It's A Small World

Deputy Sheriff George Johnsen, who was right in the middle of that riot at Juanita's Galley in Sausalito the other night, was well-trained for his role in belting and decking a number of the baddies.

Johnsen for several years fought professionally under the name of Irish George Sullivan. And on St. Patrick's Day eve, there's no one tougher than an Irishman, as the Sausalito rioters sadly learned.

KEN FROST

Reminds me of a story Irish George—er, Johnsen— told me about one of his early pro fights in Richmond. He was taking an awful beating, was down on the deck and the only thing he could remember was the referee ushering him back to his corner.

Irish George was in tears, thinking he had lost, but just then the referee raised his hand in triumph.

Seems Sullivan—er, Johnson—in a daze from the beating he was taking, climbed off the deck and blindly knocked out his opponent without even realizing it.

That's what you call a fighter's instinct.

BAY AREA Invitational High School Baseball Tournament, scheduled this spring at Albert Field in San Rafael, promises to become one of the outstanding prep events in Northern California.

A brainstorm of Redwood High Coach Al Endriss, the first annual tourney will feature eight and possibly ten of the outstanding teams in Northern California. "I've been besieged with requests for invitations, but we'll have to limit the field to 10 teams this year," Endriss explained.

He said the tournament definitely will become known as the Tournament of Champions next year, patterned after Berkeley's basketball T of C, with the blessing of the California Interscholastic Federation.

Endriss also said he has received enthusiastic support from school officials, coaches and especially pro scouts.

"I only hope," Endriss added, "we can keep it an annual event here in Marin, but I'm afraid it might have to be moved elsewhere if it gets too big for our local facilities."

SMALL WORLD, DEPT.— The famous Danish soccer team, AGF, visited Danish Home in San Rafael Saturday on the eve of its game in San Francisco and provided two examples that it is indeed a small world.

Example 1: Mr. Tom Pedersen, a resident of the Danish home for 15½ years who left Denmark 41 years ago, discovered among the persons escorting the team, a Mr. Holberg, and recognized him as the son of his (Mr. Pedersen's) employer in Denmark 42 years ago.

Example 2: Mr. John Jacobsen, who is in the home's infirmary, asked to meet the famous soccer star Hennig Enoksen. They soon learned that they're both natives of the same tiny hamlet in Denmark.

Enoksen, by the way, is the star who rejected an offer of $75,000 plus a liberal annual salary from an Italian soccer club so that he could remain a teacher in Denmark.

BELVEDERE'S Ken Frost, 1962 grad of Redwood High and now a freshman at Indiana University, will be competing in the Men's National Indoor AAU Swimming Championships at Yale University this week.

A breaststroke specialist, Ken will race in the 200-yard event tomorrow and the 100-yarder Friday.

Young Frost is one of the best mermen ever produced in Marin tanks.

MOST STATE GAME RULES UNCHANGED

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The first sage grouse hunt in four years and an extended mountain quail season were the only major changes in hunting rules proposed today for California's 1963-64 seasons.

The State Fish and Game Department called for big game and upland game seasons largely the same as for this year, but moved up one day to provide Saturday openers.

Bag and possession limits would stay the same.

The department, in its recommendations to the Fish and Game Commission, called for a special additional mountain quail season Sept. 1 to Nov. 1 to tie in with the general quail seasons.

The special hunt would be in the same area as last year's nine-day mountain quail season—parts of Tehama, Butte, Plumas, Lassen, Sierra, Nevada, Placer, El Dorado, Fresno and Madera counties. The general quail season for all species would be Nov. 2 to Jan. 1, except for a Dec. 15 closing in the northeast.

The early coastal deer season would open Aug. 3 and the late inland season Sept. 21. One change would take eastern Tehama County out of the shortened northeast deer season and provide a two-buck limit in all of the county except a slim section on the eastern border.

SAGE GROUSE

The two-day sage grouse hunt Sept. 1 and 2 would have a bag and possession limit of two birds. A season was scheduled for 1960, but canceled because of drought. The last shooting was in 1959.

Other changes in regulations would change shooting on cooperative pheasant hunting areas from a first-come, first-served basis to reservations through drawings. Another would extend to Southern California the 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. limit on small game shooting hours during the pheasant season, Nov. 9 to 24.

The commission will receive the recommendations April 5 in Los Angeles, announce its determinations at an April 26 meeting in San Francisco and adopt regulations at its May 24 meeting in Sacramento.

Other proposed seasons:

Deer — Early season Aug. 3-Sept. 22; late season Sept. 21- Nov. 3, except ending Oct. 20 in Modoc and Lassen counties and eastern portions of Shasta and Siskiyou counties. Archery season would be July 20-29 and Sept. 7-16.

Bear—Sept. 21-Jan. 1 statewide. Archery season Sept. 7-16, but bow and arrow permitted during regular season.

Pheasants — General season Nov. 9-24; Imperial and eastern Riverside County Nov. 9-Dec. 8.

Chukar — Nov. 2-Jan. 1, except Dec. 15 closing in northeast.

Sierra and ruffed grouse—Sept. 1 and 2 in north; Sept. 28-Oct. 6 in central part of state.

Tree Squirrels — Nov. 2-Jan. 1, except for Dec. 15 closing in northeast.

Rabbits and varying hare—Sept. 1-Jan. 1, except Dec. 15 closing in northeast. Jackrabbits open all year.

European wild pigs — Oct. 31-March 31 in Monterey County, open all year rest of state.

GOLF PRO GETS A SNOW JOB

A deep blanket of snow covered the Hobergs-Forest Lake golf course in the Cobb Valley area of southern Lake County after last week's storm. Ironically, it was golf pro George Twitchell's first day on the job at the Forest Lake summer vacation area. Twitchell is shown "putting" on the seventh "green" while Harold Durbom and Joseph Perry watch.

Carr Cracks World Mark In Furlong

TEMPE, Ariz. (UPI)—An official measurement was scheduled for today of the track where sophomore Henry Carr of Arizona State University yesterday ran the 220 yard dash on a turn in the time of :20.4—unofficially a world record.

Three officials clocked Carr in 20.4 and one timed him in 20.5, which is the mark held by four sprinters.

The 6-foot-3 football halfback from Detroit, Mich., led ASU to a 122½-27½ dual track meet win over Utah. Carr also won the 100-yard dash in 9.6 and the broad jump with a leap of 24 feet 1¾ inches.

He was also the anchor man on the winning 440 relay team which posted a time of :41.9 and he ran the second leg of the mile relay in :47.4 to contribute to a Sun Devil win in that event in 3:12.7.

In the javelin event, ASU's Frank Covelli threw it 259 feet, 11½ inches—best in the nation this year.

FRALEY PREDICTS

Yankees, Dodgers In World Series

By OSCAR FRALEY

MIAMI (UPI) — Comes the time of the year today when every sports writer worth his salt must predict the outcome of the pennant races, and Fearless Fraley's chalk selections must be the New York Yankees and the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Now the ordinary format is to give a heap of weighty reasons for such a startling prognostication. Like will the left handed second baseman from Oshkosh make the backhanded flip to first and can all 20 managers be right when they assert unanimously that "We'll make a run at 'em."

Reasons I got.

MORE CURVES

First of all, I have scanned the ball parks with yawning diligence and then chucked the whole business for other more informative pursuits. It can now be revealed that, after a myopic measurement of the bikini situation, there are more curves this season. The fish haven't been biting good and this must mean that the take sign is on. The way Sandy Koufax hits a golf ball he might be the next Babe Ruth and the manner in which things have been going at the track I may go back and, like the Washington Senators, try to get even.

REAL EXPERTS

The real experts will tell you it stacks up as a seven-team race in the American League, with Detroit, Baltimore, Minnesota, Chicago, Los Angeles and Cleveland all chasing the Yankees, and more or less in that order. Kansas City, Boston and Washington all will play out the schedule.

In the National League, the Giants, Reds and Cardinals will have to run all the way to keep pace with the Dodgers. Pittsburgh and Milwaukee, the baseball buffs inform me, might move up into that chain of command. The Phillies, Colts and Cubs will wage a stirring battle to avoid ninth place. Tenth already has been awarded to the Mets.

At Gulfstream Park they'd call 'em like this:

AMERICAN LEAGUE

1. Yankees (One best).
2. Tigers (Show signs of improvement).
3. Orioles (May last this time out).
4. Twins (Have to develop late foot).
5. White Sox (Need to show improvement).
6. Angels (Will be tough on a slow track).
7. Indiana (Could surprise).
8. A's (Too slow for this company).
9. Red Sox (Real outsider).
10. Senators (No chance with these).

NATIONAL LEAGUE

1. Dodgers (Much the best).
2. Giants (Could repeat).
3. Cincinnati (May run back to previous form).
4. Cardinals (Threat in the company).
5. Pirates (Need the breaks against these).
6. Braves (Could surprise).
7. Phillies (On a long losing streak).
8. Colts (Show little in fast company).
9. Cubs (Can't run in this set).
10. Mets (Out for a canter).

ATTEMPT MADE TO BRIBE HIGH SCHOOL RUNNER

PASADENA (AP) — Police are investigating reports that a man tried to fix a high school sprint race with a $1,000 bribe offer.

Dr. John A. Venable, principal of Muir High School, reported that two men went to the home of John W. House and sought to have his son, John House, lose the 100-yard dash in the Southern Counties track meet last Saturday in Huntington Beach.

House related that the men offered him $1,000, which he refused, and one of the men then threatened to harm the youngster if he didn't lose.

A private detective guarded John House during the meet. The youth won the 100- and 220-yard dashes.

Wood Duck Nesting Boxes Placed Along Marin Creek

The colorful wood duck, suffering from natural habitat destruction by man, is getting a helping hand from California's Department of Fish and Game.

In a continuing program, DFG game managers are installing and maintaining wood duck nesting boxes along selected waterways in Marin, Mendocino, Lake, Napa and Sonoma counties. The purpose is to provide increased nesting in unspoiled areas to offset the habitat destruction that has occurred elsewhere.

The DFG has just finished placing 10 of the weathertight nesting boxes in trees along the bank of Lagunitas Creek in Marin County. The redwood boxes, installed by Game Unit Manager Merl Sturgeon, are 24 inches in vertical depth and designed to simulate the hollow-tree cavities in which wood ducks normally nest. Since wood ducks do not carry nesting material, each box holds four inches of wood shavings to substitute for the decaying wood found in natural nest cavities. The entrance hole is of a size and shape to prevent nest raiding by racoons.

The 10 new boxes were placed in carefully selected trees along the stream bank in Samuel P. Taylor State Park and downstream to a point below the intersection of Tocaloma Platform Road and the Point Reyes-Petaluma Road.

TO MAKE MOUNTAINS, USE STARCH

Third grade pupils at Mill Valley's Homestead School have created a map of Marin from sand within a wading pool in the classroom of Mrs. Blanche Lewis. Pupils use black ribbon for highways, clay and toothpick signs in color to represent industries, schools, military installations, recreation areas and cities. They mixed in some starch with the sand to make mountains hold fast. The wading pool is the ocean and bay. At upper left of circle is Mrs. Joan French, student teacher from Dominican College, who assisted the children in their study of Marin County.

Parent Aid To Schools Is Topic

Schools—and how they can use parents, talented residents in the community and members of business and industry to help educate young students, is the theme of a new kind of education conference to be held in Marin in May.

Sponsored by the Dixie School District, the conference, called "Bay Area Experiments in Public Education," will open May 10 and continue through Saturday afternoon, May 11. Some 500 educators, school board members and the general public are expected to attend.

Topics for panel and informal discussion groups include: "Ungraded Primary Classes," "The Extramural Expert: Parents," and "Teacher Aides."

A number of Marin educators are featured as speakers and panel members of the conference. General chairman of the gathering is Dr. John A. Starkweather, clerk of the Dixie School District Board of Trustees.

The welcoming address will be made by Virgil S. Hollis, county superintendent of schools. Dennie B. Willis, superintendent of the Dixie School District, will act as general chairman of the conference Saturday morning. Edward R. Credell, assistant superintendent of Marin County schools, and Robert G. Randolph, member of the Marin County Board of Education, will serve as chairmen for two sections on "Use of Staff Talent."

A section on special teachers will be led by Penrod Moss, curriculum consultant for the Dixie district. A discussion on "The Extramural Expert: Industry and Business," will be led by Robert Shore, elementary coordinator for the more able learners program in the San Rafael city schools. Raymond Riley, principal of Santa Margarita School in the Dixie district, will speak on "Teacher Aides."

A keynote speaker from Southern California will discuss "The Changing School: Contrasting Approaches." He is Dr. John Goodlad, director of the University Elementary School at University of California at Los Angeles. His speech will begin at 8:30 p.m. Friday. Registration proceeds from 7:30 p.m.

The conference is intended to help school districts working with limited resources.

Abandonment Of Tomales High Asked

The West Marin Citizens Committee for Better Education, acting on a letter from the state fire marshal, today called for the abandonment of Tomales High School.

State Fire Marshal Glenn B. Vance, after seeing a copy of the State Division of Architecture's report on the school building, concluded that the school trustees were taking a "tremendous responsibility" in continuing use of the building.

Vance made the statement in a March 14 letter to Philip K. Dick of Point Reyes Station, co-chairman of the committee. The committee has long contended the school needs better facilities and an improved education program.

Fire Marshal Vance's letter was signed for him by John W. Fricke, senior deputy. It was in reply to a letter from Dick, who sent a copy of last month's report by the Division of Architecture which found the building unsafe against a major earthquake and noted an absence of fireblocks.

The fire marshal's letter said:

"While we can offer no excuse for the absence of fire blocking, we do feel that in a non-fire rated building such as this, lack of fire blocking from a safety standpoint is not too critical. In the event a fire should occur, our main concern, and we are sure you agree with this, would be to evacuate the building as rapidly as possible . . .

"We do believe, however, that having received the report from the Division of Architecture, and having been made aware of the evident hazardous conditions, the board of trustees is accepting a tremendous responsibility both as individuals and as a body should they continue to allow the use of the building.

"We would highly recommend they seek the advice of legal counsel prior to any further expenditure of monies."

Trustees at their March 11 meeting authorized architect George Quesada of San Francisco to make a detailed study of the building to see what must be done to assure its safety.

Supt. Anthony Matulich said today, after hearing the fire marshal's letter that he thought it "highly irregular." He said the district has not had a copy of the letter. He also said that the fire marshal or his officer appeared to be "assuming a great deal that obviously doesn't come under its jurisdiction."

Attorney William B. Wolfson, representing the citizens' committee, said copies of the letter were to be mailed to school district trustees.

Members of the committee met at Wolfson's house Monday night and prepared the following statement, which held: "This warning, following the earlier report of the state Division of Architecture condemning this building as unsafe, proves the urgent need of abandoning Tomales High School at once. This incomprehensible attitude on the part of the trustees in attempting to keep open a building which at any time might turn into a death trap shows an utter disregard for the safety of our children.

"We expect the board of trustees to act immediately to shut down Tomales High since it has now become obvious that no amount of money can make this building safe."

A.F. Officer Working For Netherlands

First Lt. Fred H. de Jong of San Rafael is serving with one Air Force and working for another in his homeland while away from home, and speaking two different languages while doing it.

Lieutenant de Jong, an F-102 Delta Dagger pilot with the United States Air Forces in Europe, is serving on the operations staff of the Royal Netherlands Air Force as a translator of operations orders. A native of Amsterdam, the 25-year-old lieutenant came to the United States when he was 10 and settled in California.

A graduate of San Rafael High School, he is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon de Jong of 3 Broadview Court.

Demo Convention Chairman Is Named

Peter Allen Smith of Kentfield, chairman of the Marin Democratic Central Committee, was named Monday night to head a Marin delegation of 25 to the California Democratic Council convention in Bakersfield, March 29-31.

He was named in a caucus of delegates at the home of Joseph Guthrie in Ross. Hans J. Schiller of Mill Valley presided.

County Might Not Help Senior Citizens Pay Rent For Center

Marin's senior citizens may not get any help from the county when the rent comes due on their new recreation hall.

Marin County supervisors yesterday failed to agree as to whether the county should pay the rent for a senior citizens' hall on Fifth Avenue in San Rafael, in the former California State Auto Assn. building.

Acting Chairman William D. Fusselman declared the county "cannot legally appropriate money to specific organizations" and therefore cannot pay $212 monthly rental for the building for use by the elderly folk.

Harry Heifetz, chairman of the county's senior citizens programming and building commission, had informed the San Rafael Elks Club, owners of the building, that he would "personally guarantee" payment of the rent until some "formal agreement" might be made for county payment.

"We can't do this sort of thing," said Fusselman, "and I'm not going to vote for it."

Supervisor Peter Behr had a different idea as to what the board intended last month when Heifetz made a proposal to the board for county rental of the building.

"I thought there was some desire on the part of the board to help the senior citizens in some way," Behr said. "This group may be on the fringe, but it's an awfully important fringe."

Asst. County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney told the board it could authorize payment of the rent if it really wanted to do so, because "under the community recreation act of the state education code, the board can establish recreation centers provided they are not restricted to any one age group." He added that "board policy" could determine whether use of the hall could be extended to anybody besides seniors.

Fusselman dismissed the matter without further discussion, saying it would be taken "under consideration."

Pastry Appetizers Of Turkey Savory Afternoon Tidbits

Are you one of the cooks who want a new recipe for hors d'oeuvre — a savory tidbit to serve at afternoon or evening parties or before lunch or dinner? Then here's something to try your hand at.

This recipe has come a long way. From Turkey via California and Illinois to our own kitchen in New York. Naturally a few changes were made in the transmission and testings, but here it is, ready for your trial. If you are willing to spend the time that is needed for its making, you may find this hors d'oeuvre rewarding.

SWISS CHEESE BOREKS

2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup milk
1 egg (slightly beaten)
¼ cup melted butter
2 tablespoons soft butter
1 egg yolk
1 teaspoon water
Swiss Cheese filling

Into a mixing bowl sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Add milk and egg; stir with a fork until thoroughly mixed. Stir in ¼ cup melted butter, 1 tablespoon at a time. Turn dough onto lightly floured board and knead until smooth—3 to 4 minutes. Shape into ball; cover and allow to rest 30 minutes. Roll dough on lightly floured board into 18-inch square. Spread with 2 tablespoons soft butter. Fold dough in thirds; press out excess air. Fold into thirds in the opposite direction; press out excess air. Wrap and refrigerate 30 minutes. Roll dough on lightly floured board into 18-inch square. Cut in 3 inch squares.

Place about 1 tablespoon of filling to one side of center on each square. Beat together the egg yolk and water. Brush edges of dough squares with egg-yolk mixture. Fold one corner of dough square over to opposite corner. Seal edges firmly with fork tines. Brush with extra melted butter. Chill thoroughly. Bake in hot (425 degrees) oven until browned, about 7 minutes. Serve hot. Makes 36.

SWISS CHEESE FILLING

¼ cup thinly sliced green onion
½ cup finely chopped celery
¼ cup chopped parsley
1 tablespoon butter
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
2 cups grated process Swiss cheese (about ½ pound)
½ cup grated Parmesan cheese (about 2 ounces)

Cook onion, celery and parsley in butter just until onion is tender. Remove from heat; stir in Worcestershire sauce. Mix the Swiss and Parmesan cheese; stir well into vegetable mixture. Makes about two cups. (A.P.)

Something Special After Easter Fast

Big bunnies hop to dessert on Easter Sunday (or any time), when you serve the chefs' secret Rice Imperatrice, a gourmet goodie that's a true something special after Lenten fasting from sweets or liquors. Try it on your menu and with it serve a pony glass of Triple Sec cordial. Here's how:

RICE IMPERATRICE

1 cup cooked extra long-grain rice
2 cups milk
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup sugar
2 teaspoons unflavored gelatine

Place all ingredients in a pot and simmer for approximately 15 minutes. Allow to cool and set. While mixture is cooling take a lightly oiled, one quart fancy mold and pour into it one cup of raspberry or strawberry gelatine. Allow this to set. Next, take cooled rice mixture and into it fold a mixture of one cup heavy cream—whipped; one-quarter cup maraschino cherries and one jigger of Triple Sec. Pour this mixture on top of the set gelatine in the mold and allow to set for approximately two hours. When set, sprinkle eight inch sponge cake with Triple Sec. Dip mold in warm water for a few seconds, then unmold Rice Imperatrice mixture onto cake, centering it. Add whipped cream borders top and bottom of cake.

YIELD: 8-10 portions. Serve with pony glass of Triple Sec.

Pickle Juice Adds Flavor To Beef Stew

Do you know that the liquid in which pickles are packed can give a delicious, indefinable flavor to many of your favorite dishes?

Not only does pickle "juice" add a subtle, sweet 'n sour flavor to foods, but it does a grand job of helping to tenderize economy cuts of meat.

A recent national survey of homemakers showed that nearly two-thirds of them (62.4% to be exact) save and use pickle "juice" in many ways.

It's only natural. Many family chefs feel downright wasteful when they pour the zesty, spicy pickle liquid down the drain.

When pickle packers learned about the extensive use of pickle liquid, they hastened to have some recipes developed using it as an ingredient.

Budget Gourmet Stew is one of their ideas. Your family will love it, and it's easy and economical to prepare.

The recipe is unusual to say the least. Notice that it doesn't call for seasoning. The pickle liquid, bouillon and sherry wine do the job. Note, too, that the marinating time is short. That's because the pickle "juice" keeps right on tenderizing the beef cubes during the baking.

You don't have to brown the meat. The bouillon and long baking do that job. And using tapioca as a thickener for the gravy may be an idea you have not tried before.

BUDGET GOURMET STEW

1 pound beef stew (cut in 2-inch cubes)
¼ cup sweet pickle juice
¼ cup sherry wine
1½ cups cold water
2 medium onions, sliced
1 small jar whole mushrooms
2 beef bouillon cubes
2 tablespoons dry bread crumbs
2 tablespoons minute tapioca

Combine pickle juice, water, onions and wine and meat. Substitute ¼ cup more of pickle juice if wine is not available. Marinate meat for one hour at room temperature. Add remaining ingredients, place in one or two-quart casserole with tight-fitting lid. Bake at 350 degrees for 4 hours. Serve over cooked noodles, rice or mashed potatoes. If desired, other vegetables such as carrots and potatoes may be added during the last hour of baking. If you prefer not to serve over noodles, rice or mashed potatoes, simply double the amount of meat And if you want to brown the meat, do so in a small amount of fat after the marinating. Serves 4.

BUDGET GOURMET STEW—Pickle "juice" adds a subtle, sweet 'n sour flavor to this luscious stew, which will delight the most finicky appetites and the family budget as well. A zesty companion salad is Sweet 'N Sour Cole Slaw, which is also prepared with pickle liquid.

Flowers Properly Placed Enhance Charm Of A Room

Cut flowers, when properly placed, can greatly enhance the beauty and charm of rooms in your home or apartment.

A simple flower bouquet used almost anywhere in a room will add a bright and cheerful note. However, by following some basic guidelines you can so place your cut flowers to get the best advantage from their beauty, color and design.

As a general rule, use low arrangements of flowers for table centerpieces, low coffee tables and under mirrors and pictures. Place dramatic, impressive masses of flowers on large tables, or use them for large wall areas or to flank pictures and mirrors, it adds.

IN ADDITION to using flowers in proper proportion to the space available, and in relation to other accessories, vary the effect by employing different basic flower designs—such as the vertical, crescent, Hogarth curve, symmetrical and asymmetrical arrangements.

Here are some flower arranging and placement tips involving the use of iris and tulips.

For either side of a starkly modern fireplace, use a vertical arrangements of five or seven iris blooms and iris foliage in a copper container. To show the beauty of each bloom, place every flower head so it is separate from the others. The iris foliage will provide contrast.

For a hall table or chest, or at the end of a buffet table positioned against the wall, use a crescent arrangement of tulip and iris blooms as the focal point, with Snapdragons and Scotch Broom curving at both ends.

FOR THE CENTER of a dining table, a mantel or under a picture, use a low horizontal arrangement of tulips, and their foliage, placed slightly off center, with Snapdragons flowing over both ends.

For the top of furniture, having other accessories, use an asymmetrical design of tulips and iris and foliage.

Forks Are A Relatively Recent Luxury

Having guests for dinner? They'll expect to be provided with table silver—knives, forks and spoons—and you'll undoubtedly comply without giving the matter a second thought. However, in our early Colonial days, flatware was so scarce guests had to bring their own. And even the most well-equipped man who came to dinner carried only a spoon and knife. The fork is a relatively recent luxury.

Our ancestors, ignorant of the inconvenience, feasted with as much gusto as we do today. They just ate their vegetables off the tips of their knives and picked up meat with their fingers. Of course, table manners were as important in those days as they are today and children learned, "never use more than three fingers in picking up meat."

BY THE TIME the father of our country had become its first president, Americans were learning to use forks. The useful little implements had been enjoyed by the Italians for many years, but our English forefathers didn't approve. They labeled the "forks" effeminate, and some went so far as to call it "sacrilegious," because it was used as a substitute for human hands.

The men of George Washington's day overcame these prejudices and became the early patrons of England's silverware industry. Washington kept the silver set on permanent display at his Virginia mansion.

AMERICA WAS soon manufacturing table silver of its own in an industry where metalworking and art met. When once a dinner knife was fashioned with a crude "pistol-grip" handle, intricate, handworked patterns were becoming as important as the utility part of the implement. Each artist had his own hallmark, imprinted on the silverware. One of the nation's oldest, the Tuttle mark, was a facsimile of the pine tree symbol which appeared on the United State's first minted silver coin.

The pine tree mark was used originally by silversmith Timothey Tuttle to identify the authentic reproductions of Colonial silver pieces, which he made in his Boston shop during the 1890s.

Among the flatware pieces of old silver is a teaspoon with a perforated bowl—a cousin of the very first teaspoons introduced some 300 years ago.

THESE DELICATE implements came into use when Europeans first began drinking tea, around 1650. They were about one-third the size of our teaspoons and used to strain leaves in the cup. Some had long, pointed handles, especially made to fit down the spouts of teapots when they became clogged with leaves.

The spoon itself has an even longer history than the teaspoon, dating back 4,000 years to ancient Egypt—where aristocratic women used the implement for dipping perfume.

The Romans had special spoons for eating eggs. These flatware pieces had long handles and deep bowls, very similar in size and shape to our modern egg cups. Juniper wood spoons became popular in the Middle Ages; they added a certain pleasing flavor to salad. And ingenious American colonists found still another use for spoons—they fashioned them with salt-shaker handles.

AS FOR MAN'S OLDEST eating implement — the knife there is some evidence that it may have been invented by a high species of ape. At any rate, man has been using knives for 45,000 years, for building, hunting, protection and eating. The versatile implement kept improving and developing until the early 1700s when guests of France's Louis XIV began bringing very pointed knives to dinner. The nervous king issued an edict against them, and soon afterwards, the round-ended knives popular today, came into use.

Truth Is, Mothers Of Small Children Are Much Overworked

"I have a bone to pick with you, Dr. Barbour," a father writes today. "My wife quotes you as saying mothers of small children shouldn't worry about keeping the house clean. Another writer advocates feeding husbands sandwiches for dinner. Are you trying to give us men indigestion and make us live in pigpens? Just because we've become fathers, don't we have rights as husbands anymore?"

Relax, fellow. I've been through this mill too, you know. I like a neat, well-ordered home as much as anyone. I hate TV dinners, and sandwiches would be worse. But the truth is, mothers of small children are overworked. They need all the help they can get, from husbands, in-laws, aunts, uncles, friends. They need to lower their housekeeping standards. Even with simple meals, short cuts with the ironing, every unessential task eliminated, they'll keep going long hours every day.

Here are a few suggestions from mothers who have worked out partial solutions to the problem. "Make a schedule, but keep it flexible," says one. "Make the children fit into your schedule, not you into theirs," advises another. "Be a happy housekeeper, not necessarily a good housekeeper," a third recommends.

Mrs. Barbour has something to offer, too. "Don't do too much at once. Clean one room a day, or do one major task a day. Take several short rests. And most important of all, as the children grow, take time to train them to make their own beds, wash dishes, pick up after themselves."

Cheer up, fathers. Our troubles will be over in a few years. Then we'll think back to the good old days, when the house was full of children and disarray.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "I want my daughter to learn to swim this summer. I tried to teach her myself last year, and got nowhere. Do you think she would do better with a swimming coach?"

Mrs. D.D.

(A) Yes. Very few parents are able to teach their children to swim. Check with your YWCA or the Red Cross. They'll recommend competent coaches from which you can make a choice.

Reading Taking Good Share Of American Leisure Time

By MARGERY McELHENY

CHICAGO (UPI) — Americans have more than doubled their book purchases during the last decade. Book sales have climbed to 509 million dollars each year, proof that reading is taking up a good share of American leisure time, say industry sources.

Where to read is the question in the compact, sound-filled household of today. Only the few have the space and traffic areas for a library.

MANY HOMEMAKERS with growing families solve the peace and quiet problem by using their bedroom as a library retreat. Even a moderately-sized room can accommodate hanging wall shelves for books, a comfortable lounge chair with an ottoman and a table beside it with a good reading light.

For bedtime bookworms, library shelves now are built into cabinet headboards, hung above the head of the bed, or erected in slim cabinets flanking the bedstead. Some headboards have arm rests that drop into place, others have panels that turn into slanted back rests.

LARGE, TRIANGULAR foam rubber pillows also are available for propping the reader to a comfortable position.

Sometimes the dining room can be used effectively as the library center of the home. Hanging shelves of books alternating with attractive ceramics or collector's items can be decorative and functional if extended along one wall. Beneath them, a space-saving, built-in reading bench can be constructed of plywood covered with removable cushions cut to measure. Large wall bolsters or scatter pillows will turn the bench into a comfortable divan. A carpenter easily can build it, with storage door for linens and dining accessories.

IN HOMES WHERE the television and stereo sets are registered are relegated to a family room, the living room can become the library without transforming its period decor.

Parties To Precede Club Founders Luncheon Tomorrow

Festivities in connection with the Sausalito Woman's Club Founders' Day luncheon tomorrow will begin with a number of beforehand parties. They will be exceptionally gala occasions since this is the club's golden jubilee year.

Of special interest is the very large sherry party to be given by Mrs. Carl Spring, a past president, honoring Mrs. Helen Ludolph, also a past president who is now living in Hyde Park, New York. Mrs. Ludolph came here especially for the event and is a house guest of Mrs. John E. Koenig, another past president.

Mrs. King Hettrich will be hostess at the sixth annual cocktail party honoring past presidents that she has made a tradition ever since she was 1956-57 president.

Mrs. Leonard G. James, president in 1957-58, has invited some 70 guests to her cocktail and sherry party, and Mrs. Alan H. Scurfield will serve planters punch to about 12 of her friends.

The sherry party Mrs. Edward Ravizza will have for about 35 guests will be something of an open house too, since it is the first entertaining she has been able to do since a fire damaged the Ravizzas' home last July.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fourkas of El Cerrito. Afterward the the couple left for a weekend at Carmel.

The New Mrs. Fourkas, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bartmus of Kingman, Ariz., received her bachelor of arts degree from Arizona State University and is presently completing work on a master's degree in recreation at San Francisco State College.

Her husband is a graduate of the University of California and is employed by the County of Contra Costa.

The newlyweds are living in Sausalito.

Play It Safe

Sun, sand and sea can wreak havoc with your hair. Play it safe and pack a bright scarf or straw hat to protect your head from the sun when you go on a vacation. A smart trick to avoid sun-dried hair is to smooth a little hair dressing through your hair before exposure to the sun. Its lubricating oils help prevent dryness.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes

"Where's that stuff you use to remove wrinkles? . . . I've got a couple in my necktie."

Crackers In Bacon

Ever brown crackers in bacon fat? Drain on brown paper and serve at once. Good with that before-dinner drink. Cook bacon over very low heat so the bacon fat you use will be white.

Peace Corps Tests Slated Saturday

Placement tests for Peace Corps volunteers will be held Saturday in Room 7 of the San Rafael Post Office, Third and D streets, it was announced today.

Two types of tests will be given, starting at 8:30 a.m. One is for applicants who would like to teach at the high school or college level, for which a bachelor's degree is usually required. A teaching certificate is not required.

The other test is a general examination covering all other Peace Corps assignments. However, applicants for teaching tests may also take the general test.

Peace Corps assignments include jobs in education, agriculture, health, construction and community development, officials said.

Applicants must be United States citizens at least 18 years old, but there is no upper age limit. Married couples with no dependent children may qualify for the same project.

Questionnaires, available at postoffices, should be filled out and sent to the Peace Corps before the test if possible.

More tests will be given on April 27 and June 8, but officials said applicants can be considered for more projects by taking the tests Saturday.

Young GOP To Hear Hungarian Refugee

A Hungarian who hi-jacked a DC-3 plane and flew to freedom from Hungary to West Germany will speak at a meeting of the Novato Young Republicans beginning at 8 p.m. Monday in the Nave Lanes banquet room.

New Novato Queen Contest Rules For Western Weekend Announced

New rules for the queen contest for Novato's Western Weekend were announced today by Mrs. Joanne Johnson, queen contest chairman and chaperone.

To be eligible, a girl must be between 16 and 26 years of age, have never been married, must be a resident of the greater Novato area. No professional models may compete. The contest is sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce with assistance of the jaycettes, as a part of the celebration.

Before the American Bowling Congress approved the plastic coated bowling pin in 1954, a total of 900,000 games were rolled to test the pins.

The queen and her two princesses will reign over the three-day celebration, including the rodeo sponsored by the Novato Horsemen's Assn. She will be crowned at a ceremony June 14 at the Novato Community Club.

Entry blanks are available from Mrs. Johnson at 770 Eucalyptus Avenue, Novato.

Mental Outpatient Clinic Will Be Big Step Forward

We appear to be on the threshhold of what might be described as Phase III of the modernization of mental health care facilities here in Marin County.

The first phase, as we viewed it, was the development of some considerable public awareness that most mental illnesses are treated most effectively when cared for near home in a general hospital.

This concept seems reasonable enough, but when it was first put to the public in the form of a bond issue to build a mental care facility at Marin General hospital, it was soundly defeated. The public awareness had, obviously, not been developed to a sufficient extent.

The second phase was the ultimate construction of a mental care wing at a general hospital here in Marin. Private enterprise povided the initiative and the funds; it was built at privately-owned Ross General Hospital.

Its use has exceeded estimates and expectations.

Recently the Marin Mental Health Foundation (not to be confused with the Marin Association for Mental Health) declared its intention to begin operating a mental outpatient clinic here in the near future.

This will be the third phase in the development of modern, up-to-date facilities for mental patient care in Marin.

Experience has shown that mental patients cared for in a general hospital, such as Ross, recover much more quickly than those sent to some state institution, far away from home, friends and family doctor.

Experience in other communities has shown that adequate mental outpatient care can save some patients from having to go to a hospital at all and can make it possible to release others even sooner.

These are obviously desirable goals, not only from the standpoint of lessening the economic burden of mental hospital costs, but for humane considerations as well.

The Marin Mental Health Foundation has set May 1 as the target date for starting their outpatient clinic.

In some respects the services the Foundation plans to provide will be similar to those that Marin could get under the terms of the Short-Doyle Act, which would provide some state financial aid (and some state control) for a tax-subsidized mental health clinic.

But our County Board of Supervisors rejected the Short-Doyle approach after considerable opposition developed.

Happily, private initiative in the form of the Marin Mental Health Foundation is taking hold to provide a solution.

Whether private funds will be sufficient to swing the project remains to be seen. We certainly hope so. We hope that some of those who opposed Short-Doyle because of fear about state controls will now dig into their pockets and come forth with contributions toward this private enterprise effort by the Foundation.

We need this Phase III; if private contributions are not sufficient, applications for public funds must inevitably follow.

One way or another, we must have modern facilities in Marin to care for mental patients.

Milk Maids Of Marin

Dainty, four-petaled white flowers are blooming in Taylor Park now. They are one of the first flowers of the season. Their common name is Milk Maids.

Marin is a dairy county, but real milk maids have long been supplanted by machines. Only the floral variety remain. Their nomenclature is a survival of a simpler age.

This old-time flower is a welcome sign of spring in our county.

Lobbyist For Bridge Users?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

What on earth can a "lobbyist" for the Golden Gate Bridge District do for the users of the bridge that's worth $30,000 a year to them? It strikes me that this lobbyist is spending his time protecting the private preserve of the Bridge District Directors. I'm for Bridge District Directors Hardcastle and Leonoudakis in their effort to pin down this expense.

The whole Bridge District sounds more and more like a big private "boondoggle" to me. Time this facility was taken over by a bay-wide district interested more in providing transportation than in preserving the Golden Gate Bridge District directors.

Constitution Must Be Upheld

EDITOR
Independent-Journal

It is perfectly possible to convict a person of drunken driving without violating the Constitution of the United States. In fact, accounts of such convictions appear frequently in your newspaper.

Certainly there is no more flagrant way to compel a person to be a witness against himself, than by using his own blood against him. This was part of Nixon's program. But Nixon was defeated. And who can say how many votes this cost him? Now Assemblyman Bagley, Governor Brown, and Attorney-General Mosk are advocating Nixon's idea, with complete disregard for the Bill of Rights. If the Constitution of the United States must be respected by the State of Mississippi it must be respected by the State of California also.

Another part of Nixon's program appears in an Assembly Bill to require every driver to consent to search and seizure of his automobile for narcotics when he applies for his driver's license, thereby losing the protection afforded him by the Fourth Amendment.

Not only drunken drivers and those who sell or use narcotics will lose their rights. Everyone who drives a car in the State of California will be selling his birthright for a driver's license. Furthermore, these Constitutional guarantees are intended to protect everyone, or they will protect no one. . . .

Mail Is Not Accurate Vote

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Volume of mail, pro and con, is being cited as reason to cast a cloud over the reappointment of Thomas Braden to the (State) Board of Education. Mere volume of mail, however, is listed nowhere in the U.S. constitution, nor anywhere in the state constitution, as a valid agency representing the public.

Letter-writing often does indicate commendable public interest on the part of the correspondent. But the post office "chute" is not an accurate voting machine.

If any member of the Senate rules committee is opposed to Braden's reappointment, let him state his reason specifically. His statement will be reported and the public can make judgment accordingly.

We recall the boast of John Birch Society members that they can achieve their ends by focusing, on signal, an intensive bombardment of letters upon whatever legislator they choose to harass.

It is a legitimate trick but it should be recognized as a willful distortion of the actual graph of public opinion.

Winton Bill Deserves Support

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

According to the I-J's report of the March 12 meeting of the San Rafael Board of Education, that body "took no stand" in response to a request for its opinion "on proposed legislation allowing for multiple choice of state textbooks."

The specific issue before the Board, I understand, was whether or not to endorse a bill recently introduced by Assemblyman Winton of Merced under which the State would select and make available for free distribution to the local districts several basic elementary school texts in each subject, allowing the local board to select the text best suited to its needs and educational approach. Under present law, only one basic text is selected, and if the local board doesn't like this one, it has to buy a substitute out of its own funds. State Superintendent of Public Instruction Rafferty and such groups as the California Teachers Association (an unusual alliance) have strongly endorsed the bill. The Brown-appointed State Board of Education is opposed . . .

. . . It is extremely disappointing to find the San Rafael School Board declining to take a position on it (the Winton bill) in the face of a specific request to do so. The only conclusion that one can draw from this is that the Board lacks either the requisite understanding or initiative when it comes to matters of curriculum improvement.

In view of this event, it would seem to be appropriate for the parents of San Rafael to take the opportunity of the coming election to put on their School Board some people who do have both a genuine concern with and a background in this area of improvement of school curriculum.

Gotta Loose Tooth? Then You Have An Interesting Day Ahead

NEW YORK (AP)—One of life's little ordeals is to have a loose tooth in middle age.

"Get your fingers out of your mouth," your wife says one morning at breakfast, reaching across the table to slap at your hand.

"Scuse. Ughgotta loose tooth," you mumble.

"Either there is an echo in this room," says your wife, "or I understand you to say you have a loose tooth, which is more or less impossible."

"Ughgotta loose tooth!"

"The old lady on the floor below us has had three husbands, and outlived them all," remarks the wife. "One of them lasted until 85. She told me all about her husbands, and none of them ever had a loose tooth."

"Oh, well, you would!" replies the wife crossly. Then she goes to the desk, thumbs through the family insurance folder and announces forlornly, "Just as I thought—we're not covered. Why does this have to happen to me?"

As you step into the bus you tell the driver: "Ughgotta loose tooth."

"Move to the back of the bus, please," he replies. It is hard to impress a bus driver.

It is also hard to impress the boss.

"Ughgotta loose tooth," you tell him.

"I have a lame back," he answers, "but the company still has to make a profit to stay in business."

"Ughgotta loose tooth."

"Well, go see your dentist—I'm not the chaplain," the boss says impatiently. "But hurry back, or you'll be too late for the coffee break."

It turns out your dentist deals only with situations involving firm teeth or no teeth. He sends you to a specialist.

They strap you in a chair, the specialist enters, sticks a monkey wrench into your mouth, clamps it, and looks out the window. You look out the window, too, to see what he is looking at, and then he gives a quick jerk on the wrench, and your loose tooth is out.

"Thammps," you tell him.

He sends you back to your own dentist, who examines you and says, "Now you'll need a new bridge. It'll take about three weeks and I estimate the job at $365—give or take $100."

YOU HURRY BACK to the office. Sure enough, you've missed the coffee break, but you at least have the pleasure of spending the rest of the day opening your mouth and showing where the loose tooth was.

Your wife is very kind to you when you get home and explain in gap-mouthed English the ordeal of your day. When you awaken the next morning, you find your wife has thoughtfully put a shiny two-bit piece under your pillow.

"THAT'S FOR LUNCH — I'd suggest soup," she says. "You've been a good boy."

"Thammps."

There's nothing quite like a loose tooth to teach one that middle age has its own rewards.

We Vote McCarthy To Represent Us And Pay Garland To Fight Him

IT'S JUST TOO BAD that you and you, as well as me too, can't pull ourselves together sort of.

On the one hand we vote Jack McCarthy of San Rafael into the state senate to represent the people of Marin County.

On the other we scamper across the Golden Gate Bridge 10,000 times a month to provide pay for lobbyist Gordon Garland.

Yet Garland's main job seems to be fighting McCarthy. About such things, say, as limitation of bridge directors to two four-year terms.

That's O.K. for the president of the United States. But to limit bridge directors to such a pitiful portion would no doubt be ruinous. So they think.

Illogical? Well, any more illogical than for Marin County to have two members on the bridge board dedicated to opposite points of view?

When Thomas D. Hardcastle of Novato votes "yes", mostly you can count on Leland S. Murphy of Inverness to vote "no". And vice versa. 'Twas thus as the board recently debated whether to fire Garland or put him in green financial clover hip-deep.

Hardcastle was for firing, Murphy was against it. Hardcastle felt economical. But Murphy found it reasonable to boost Garland $1,000 a month to a rousing $2,500 with no expense account.

"I DON'T LIKE all this public discussion," said Garland though he was getting paid pretty well for undergoing it. He felt some of his Sacramento customers might wonder just how many members of the board he was representing. (No mention, by the way, of the paying public.)

If the Marin members of the board were on his mind he had a good question.

Personally I think it's fun to ride back and forth across the bridge. But I'd enjoy more making my share of the necessary 10,000 trips per month if the board hadn't done away with those automatic toll machines.

I never hit the jackpot by tossing my two-bitses at the hopper, and once I lost a quarter. But there always seemed some element of gamble. You hit or you miss.

Now about the only gamble left is: who will be sitting in Murphy's bridge board chair after his present term runs out? I can't get away from a hunch that the game is "fixed," except that I don't know which way.

IT IS RATHER a pity that it costs $2,500 to keep a good substantial lobbyist happy at the end of every month. While covering a meeting of the board I got to thinking there was at least one better way to spend the money.

With practically no derogatory implication I'd suggest that the walls of the bridge board room be padded.

The bridge headquarters building is just off the toll plaza, on its San Francisco side. During board meetings the racket of cars accelerating away after tolls have been paid is just about enough to blow one's head off one's shoulders.

Every departing Cadillac, Ford, Fiat and Porsche tears off with a resounding vrooom! —an automatic Bronx cheer at the bridge board.

I can't believe this is really so. It just seems that way.

But there's one good thing about all this commotion. One can hardly hear what the board members are saying.

Communism, Economics Are Twin Problems Facing Latin America

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's conference in Costa Rica with six Latin American presidents is like a meeting of surgeons to consider a couple of abscesses: communism and economics.

Since neither can be lanced in a minute, and the treatment of both takes a long time, any announcement on what the seven presidents agree to can hardly be spectacular.

While Fidel Castro at the moment is the most painful reminder that communism is a threat to Latin America, it was a threat before he muscled his way into Cuba.

It will remain one so long as the Communists have any grounds for promising the millions of ignorant and poverty-stricken people of Latin America they can provide a better life than the one they've had to endure.

THE MEN MEETING with Kennedy are the presidents of five Central American republics—Costa Rica, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Honduras, El Salvador — and Panama, which considers itself part of South America.

If the danger from Castro as a buccaneer can be ruled out for the time being, he is a menace in other directions, symbolically and actually:

1. So long as he survives he is a symbol of Communist success in at least one Latin American country, and therefore an encouragement to Communists among his neighbors.

2. He is a kind of president of a Communist college in the Western world, turning out ambitious students all the time.

Under Castro, Cuba is a training ground for men from other Latin American countries in Communist ideology, agitation, revolutionary leadership, and guerrilla fighting, all of which can be put to use when they return home.

AT THE ROOT of all the anti-Castroism in the Costa Rican conference will be the problem far more basic than Castro: how the six countries can have better economic progress.

Together, the six are about the size of France. All except Panama have created for themselves a common market with duty-free trade across their frontiers.

The growth of this intra-regional and integration movement is one of the most hopeful developments in Latin America. How to make it better will be a main consideration of the seven presidents' meeting.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

PETER LIND HAYES delights in reminiscing about his erratic old friend, stuttering Joe Frisco. Joe was in constant terror of being robbed says Hayes. One night he checked into a flea-bag in Altoona, and searched every corner of the room before retiring to make sure no robber was lying in wait for him.

Then he double-locked the door and dove into bed. He took one more precaution even then. In the darkness he called out, "Oh, Lord, here I am in Altoona again — dead broke!"

Danny Kaye, touring the world in behalf of the UN International Children's Emergency Fund, encountered one mean old curmudgeon who derided the whole idea. "The diseases, famines, and floods of the Far East," he insisted "were always nature's way of counteracting overpopulation. Now you do-gooders are upsetting all the scales and what's the result? Seven hundred million Red Chinese! I don't mean to sound heartless, but . . . "

"Your logic is infallible," interrupted Kaye testily. "Why not put it to the test the next time your own child gets sick?"

20 YEARS AGO

Frank Kelly resigned as undersheriff to enter the race for police chief of San Rafael.

Lawrence Moore and Elie Dalmon bought San Rafael D Street property along Fouth Street, including the city's first movie house, from Albert's, Inc., for $125,000.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

One Of Troubles With Players Is Not Keeping Up With Times

One of the troubles with the way people play bridge is that they don't keep up to date. This applies to some of the time-honored rules of play that we have all grown up with.

Opening lead — ♠ K

South ruffed the third round of spades and laid down the ace and king of trumps, hoping for a 2-2 trump break.

OLD RULE

Unfortunately, the trumps failed to break, and South had to lose a trump trick and a club, for a one-trick defeat.

"I followed the old rule," South said apologetically as his partner turned a reproachful eye on him.

"You're supposed to finesse for the queen when you have eight trumps, but not when you have nine trumps."

"That would be a good rule if you were playing some mythical hand in Never-Never-Land," North objected. "But you were playing this particular hand here and now, and the odds favored a finesse."

The old rule applies when you know absolutely nothing about the concealed hands.

At the point where you must make up your mind about the finesse, your left-hand opponent has one card more than the right-hand opponent, and this gives the left-hand a slightly better chance to hold the missing queen. Hence the odds are against finessing.

SHOULD RUFF

In today's hand, South should ruff the third spade, cash the ace of trumps and enter dummy with a diamond to lead another trump. When East plays low, declarer knows that East has 7 unknown cards.

At this stage West has 8 cards, but 3 of them are known to be spades. Only 5 of West's cards are unknown.

The odds are 7 to 5 that any particular card (such as the queen of hearts) is in the East hand rather than the West hand. This means that the odds are 7 to 5 in favor of a finesse.

Don't follow abstract rules when you are faced by a concrete situation.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, March 20, the 79th day of the year with 286 to follow in 1963.

The moon is approaching its new phase. The morning star is Venus. The evening star is Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1852, Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was published in book form for the first time.

In 1951, Argentine dictator Juan Peron seized an opposition newspaper in Buenos Aires.

A thought for the day: upon landing at Leyte Island, Douglas MacArthur said: "This is the voice of freedom, General MacArthur speaking, people of the Philippines: I have returned."

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

World-Wide Demand For Wigs Has Bad Effect On Health Needs

VAN DELLEN

The British health service is having wig trouble. The world-wide demand for fashion wigs threatens to reduce the supply of those needed for medical purposes. This fashion trend has led to an international shortage in the supply of human hair and a marked rise in its cost. Two of the largest English wig-making firms are cancelling their contracts with the health service.

According to a letter in the Journal of the American Medical Assn., the ministry of health furnished more than 10,000 wigs last year to persons for whom a medical need was established. Natural baldness is not a valid reason. Most of the demand in Britain is among young women factory workers whose hair got caught in the machinery. Each patient receives two—one to be used while the other is being cleaned. The cost of the British health service ranges from $59 to $70. The patient is carged $7 for a full wig, or $14 for the pair.

A NEW YORK CITY physician found himself in a dilemma. He tried to revive his pet monkey by mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and learned later that the animal had tuberculosis. He asked the American Thoracic society whether tuberculosis could be transmitted in this way. The answer was that the likelihood was small and the emergency circumstances he encountered usually overrides precautions against this remote possibility.

This is understandable because tuberculosis is transmitted by droplets expelled in coughing, sneezing, or talking. These particles are inhaled into the air sacs, establishing beachheads for the micro-organisms.

DIRECT CONTACT with the lips and mouth do not spread the infection unless there are scratches in the membranes in these areas. Tubercle bacilli can enter through the tonsile and intestinal tract but the chances are remote while doing mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

The society also made the suggestion that all pet monkeys be examined regularly for tuberculosis. They are susceptible to the disease and transmit the organisms via the airborne route unless the condition is detected and treated early.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

TO EACH HIS OWN

E. E. writes: Whenever I don't feel well I go to bed early and read for relaxation before falling asleep. I was told it was better to go to bed and close the eyes and try to sleep. What is the correct thing to do?

REPLY

Do what is best for you. Going to bed, closing the eyes, and falling asleep immediately are ideal but few of us can "unlax" so rapidly. Others resort to reading or listening to music. This is not harmful and has the same effect as closing the eyes and trying to fall asleep. These methods are better than taking a sleeping pill.

POTENTIAL M. D.

B. C. writes: I am interested in becoming a doctor and would appreciate information on how to go about it.

REPLY

Go to college and take the courses required for admission to a medical school. While in college, take the medical college admissions test and make application to a medical school 12 to 16 months in advance of the beginning of the school year. Then get on your knees and pray you will be accepted.

NO SNORING CURE

W. C. writes: Medically speaking, can anything be done for persons who snore excessively?

REPLY

No, because a remedial cause seldom is found. If separate bedrooms are not available, the spouse should use ear muffs or plugs.

ELBOW BENDING

H. P. writes: Does beer make a sore elbow worse?

REPLY

Yes, especially when it is bent too often.

Today's Health Hint — Are your attic and basement litter free?

Spring In Air For U. S. Businessman

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—With spring at the threshold, many businessmen are cautiously deciding they may be better off than they were admitting.

They won't go so far as to say that business shouldn't be a lot better than it is. And they have problems and worries by the bushel. They often do.

But neither today's conditions or tomorrow's prospects are as dire as many were saying a little while ago.

Federal slide-rule artists, after a new look at the employment figures, find some improvements scattered amidst the bad news they released earlier this month.

The steel industry is enjoying a mild sort of boom. Auto makers can reel off both figures and hopes—all on the rosy side. And spring could work its minor miracle among the winter weary and send auto sales still higher.

Unemployment is the most chronic pain. But even it may be eased somewhat by spring's opening up of more outdoor jobs.

Labor strife — present and potential — is a particularly large cloud this year. But whether it blows away or becomes a major thunderstorm is yet to be seen.

Corporate earnings reports mostly are on the cheerful side.

Employment figures take on a cheerier hue as the Labor Department looks the latest figures over and finds they weren't as bad as could be expected in the final weeks of winter. This is known as adjusting them seasonally.

On this basis, factory jobs increased in February for the first time in seven months. While the factory work week actually dropped a bit, it wasn't as much as usual for the time of year.

So, seasonally adjusted, it is recorded as lengthening after two months of shrinkage.

All of this is designed to take some of the bitter edge off the increase of the rate of unemployment to 6.1 per cent of the total labor force, the highest percentage in 15 months.

Steel production's seven straight weeks of expansion puts it 19 per cent higher than early February. Some of the gains come from stock building as a hedge against the possibility of a strike late in the summer. Some is credited to rebuilding of stocks allowed to dwindle during the steel industry's private little recession.

But a good part of the new orders are reported to be from customers who need the metal for use now and in the spring as their own business expands.

Two of steel's big customers—autos and construction—have been doing fine and see no letup soon.

Those with things to sell to consumers — from clothes to household appliances, from autos to new homes — are counting upon good spring business. There are regional differences, whether caused by the weather or unemployment.

But on the whole, it looks like a good spring after a nervous winter.

'Run Spot, Run' Reading Methods Are Out Of Date As McGuffey's

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Puff the cat's entanglement in a ball of yarn and "Run Spot, run" are becoming as old-fashioned as McGuffey's Reader.

The 172-year-old publishing house of J. B. Lippincott is offering what it claims is a new concept in teaching reading to youngsters.

The publisher feels its new text, "Basic Reading," may eliminate concern of many educators over the rising incidence of reading inabilities among children.

The authors, Glenn McCracken, founder and director of the New Castle, Pa., reading experiment, and Charles C. Walcutt, a linguistic professor at Queens College, New York, say their teaching method will give a first grader command of 2,000 words at the end of his first year. This compares with a vocabulary of some 375 words under the present "look-say" method.

Pilot tests are planned this spring in Iowa, Tennessee, California and suburban Philadelphia.

The authors say that the basic reading series combines the better features of two teaching methods now in use, th phonics system advocated by modern educators, and the look-say or whole word meaning method by which pre-World War II pupils learned to read.

"Basic Reading," say the authors, is the first series which fully integrates phonics and whole-world meanings. Their system, however, never teaches sound isolation. The sound of all letters and letter combinations are taught only as they are used in words.

Phonics is the science of sound and teaches pupils to read phonetically. They learn new words because they know how a letter sounds. The look-say method is simply, r a n spells ran.

McCracken and Walcutt offer it this way:

Three rabbits in varying sizes —big, bigger and biggest —are depicted over the letters "r" and "R." The teachers stresses the "r" sound as it is pronounced in rabbit. Thus the auditory and visual discrimination of the letter is taught.

The colorful illustrations add to the lesson what is referred to as readiness activities, the concept of relative size, understanding of ordinals first, second and third, visual differentiation or observation, e.g. one rabbit's ears are missing, counting in left-to-right and line-to-line progressions.

Pupils thus learn the whole image of words from the start with all letter and sounds.

The program, available only to educational institutions, is considered flexible in that it offers material sufficient for the fast learners, but allows the slower pupil to keep pace with an average level of achievement.

The child also is ready to recognize words heard on television, such as crisis, mysterious and creation — words he normally would not read until he is much older.

The authors hope their new reader will make remedial reading classes obsolete.

PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—Bringing fish meal from South Africa to Maine might seem like carrying coals to Newcastle.

The San Rafael Chamber of Commerce is planning to offer an "Action Course in Practical Politics" for chamber members, employees or members of their families.

The highest score out of 35 entrants in the mathematics contest given last week at Novato High School was made by Don Burnham, a senior.

Joseph Killian, a junior, was second, and Mike Patterson, a senior, third. These three high papers will be sent to the Mathematical Assn. of America for consideration in special school awards.

Hub Chamber To Hear Review Of Program

San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce members will hear a review by Charles F. Pendleton and Hugh Turner, manager of radio station KTIM, of the station's "San Anselmo to You" program when the chamber meets at 12:15 tomorrow at the Ranch House.

Max Martin, acting secretary-manager, will report that the chamber has been accepted as a member of the Redwood Empire Assn.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Rental Property To Be Reported

By PETER J. WIKEL, C.P.A.

Income from rents are reported the same on your California and Federal returns. If your tenant pays you to cancel his lease or pays your taxes, interest or advance rent, etc., the payments are rental income.

P. J. Wikel

If you rent property to a friend or relative for less than the fair rental value, you can deduct depreciation and expenses only to the extent of the income. In other words, you cannot deduct a loss from such rental.

Depreciation on rental property should be explained fully on the tax return.

The costs of repainting or repapering, fixing a leak in the roof, repairing plumbing or wiring, etc., are deductible. The cost of a new room, new bathroom fixtures, new lighting fixtures, or a new furnace are capital expenditures and their costs are recovered through depreciation charges.

Commissions, advertising, janitor service, water, fuel, fire insurance, taxes and interest are deductible.

Assessments for such items as paving, sewer or other local improvements are not deductible, but should be capitalized.

Insurance premiums paid in advance on rental property are not fully deductible in the year paid, but only on a pro-rata basis each year for the period the insurance is in effect.

If you own a part interest in rental property, you take your share of the rents as income and deduct your share of the expenses.

If you live in part and rent out part of a dwelling, only the expenses of the rented part are deductible. The interest and taxes for the part you live in can be deducted only if you itemize your deductions.

If you live in a house part of a year and rent the rest of the year, you can deduct only the expenses for the period it is rented.

Excerpts Are Planned From 'My Fair Lady'

A group of Marin and Sonoma residents will perform excerpts from "My Fair Lady" at a meeting of the Berkeley branch of the National League of American Pen Women at 1:30 p.m. March 23 in the College Women's Club in Berkeley.

The lead roles will be played by Mrs. Joan Smith of Greenbrae, Robert Thayer of Corte Madera, and Mark Hathaway of San Rafael.
